UC will transfer your rollover electronically to Fidelity Retirement Services and a check will not be sent to you. Your UCRP rollover accumulations will be invested according to your investment election on file at Fidelity Retirement Services. Please note that your investment election stays on file even after you separate from UC employment. You can view or change your investment election at www.netbenefits.com. (From the "Summary" page, select "Change Investments," and then select "Contributions.") Or you can speak to a Fidelity Retirement Specialist by calling the toll-free number 1-866-682-7787, Monday through Friday, 5:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., PT. If you have no investment election on file, your UCRP accumulations will be invested in a UC default fund; contact Fidelity Retirement Services directly to change your investment election. You should also contact Fidelity Retirement Services if you want to move some or all of your account balance (called performing an "exchange").

For Roth IRAs only

I understand that the taxable portion of this rollover will be reported as taxable income in the year of distribution. UC will not automatically withhold for federal or state taxes on direct rollovers to Roth IRAs. My withholding preferences are indicated below:

- Do not withhold federal or California (CA) state taxes on this rollover to a Roth IRA (default)
- Withhold federal taxes on this rollover to a Roth IRA: a flat dollar amount: $ _____ or a percentage: _____%
- Withhold CA state taxes on this rollover to a Roth IRA: a flat dollar amount: $ _____ or a percentage: _____%

Caution: Please consult your tax adviser. You may owe substantial federal and state taxes due to the rollover to a Roth IRA and you may be subject to an underwithholding penalty. Withholding income taxes from the amount transferred (instead of paying applicable income taxes from another source) may adversely impact the expected financial benefits of rolling over to a Roth IRA and may result in an early distribution penalty tax (if applicable).
