

Important Notice From the University of California About Your Prescription Drug Coverage and Medicare

Please read this notice carefully and keep it where you can find it. This notice has information about your current prescription drug coverage with the University of California and about your options under Medicare's prescription drug coverage. This information can help you decide whether or not you want to join a Medicare drug plan. Information about where you can get help to make decisions about your prescription drug coverage is at the end of this notice.

There are two important things you need to know about your current coverage and Medicare's prescription drug coverage:

- 1. Medicare prescription drug coverage became available in 2006 to everyone with Medicare. You can get this coverage if you join a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan or join a Medicare Advantage Plan (like an HMO or PPO) that offers prescription drug coverage. All Medicare drug plans provide at least a standard level of coverage set by Medicare. Some plans may also offer more coverage for a higher monthly premium.
- 2. The University of California has determined that the prescription drug coverage offered by UC High Option Supplement to Medicare is, on average for all plan participants, expected to pay out as much as standard Medicare prescription drug coverage pays and is therefore considered Creditable Coverage. Because your existing coverage is Creditable Coverage, you can keep this coverage and not pay a higher premium (a penalty) if you later decide to join another Medicare drug plan.

When Can You Join A Medicare Drug Plan?

You can join a Medicare drug plan when you first become eligible for Medicare and each year from October 15th to December 7th.

However, if you lose your current creditable prescription drug coverage, through no fault of your own, you will also be eligible for a two (2) month Special Enrollment Period (SEP) to join another Medicare drug plan.

What Happens To Your Current Coverage If You Decide to Join Another Medicare Drug Plan?

If you decide to join a non-UC Medicare drug plan, your current UC High Option Supplement to Medicare coverage will be affected. You will be disenrolled from UC High Option Supplement to Medicare and your coverage will terminate at the end of the month in which you enrolled in the Medicare drug plan. Your Medicare coverage for Medicare Part A and Medicare Part B will revert to Medicare Fee-For-Service with no supplemental coverage. Coverage for your non-UC Medicare drug plan will be effective the first of the following month of enrollment in the Medicare drug plan. Coverage for your dependents will be affected by your enrollment changes.

If you do decide to join a non-UC Medicare drug plan and drop your current UC High Option Supplement to Medicare coverage, be aware that you and your dependents will not be able to get this coverage back until the first of the year following the next Open Enrollment.

When Will You Pay A Higher Premium (Penalty) To Join A Medicare Drug Plan?

You should also know that if you drop or lose your current coverage with UC High Option Supplement to Medicare and don't join a Medicare drug plan within 63 continuous days after your current coverage ends, you may pay a higher premium (a penalty) to join a Medicare drug plan later. If you go 63 continuous days or longer without creditable prescription drug coverage, your monthly premium may go up by at least 1% of the Medicare base beneficiary premium per month for every month that you did not have that coverage. For example, if you go nineteen months without creditable coverage, your premium may consistently be at least 19% higher than the Medicare base beneficiary premium. You may have to pay this higher premium (a penalty) as long as you have Medicare prescription drug coverage. In addition, you may have to wait until the following October to join.
