The exercise of management rights shall not be subject to meeting and conferring.
- C. No action taken by the University with respect to the above enumerated rights shall be subject to the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure of this Agreement or collateral suit, unless the exercise thereof violates an express written provision of this Agreement.

The University will not discriminate with regard to race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender expression, gender identity, gender transition status, marital status, pregnancy (includes childbirth and related medical conditions), sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, medical condition (cancer related or genetic characteristics), HIV status, union activity, political affiliation and status as a covered veteran as defined by the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act (VEVRA), service in the uniformed services (including service in the uniformed services as defined by the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA), as well as state military and naval service), age or citizenship. As required by law, including relevant Federal and State Constitutional and statutory provisions and University rules or regulations, the provisions of the Agreement shall be applied to all members of the unit without regard to marital status, handicap, medical condition, genetic information, and status as a disabled veteran.
- B. For purposes of this Article only, medical condition means any health impairment related to, or associated with, a diagnosis of cancer, for which a person has been rehabilitated or

ARTICLE 5 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- A. All career employees shall serve a probationary period of six (6) calendar months at fifty percent (50%) time or more without a break in service. Time on leave with or without pay is not qualifying service for the completion of the probationary period. Employees who are rehired following a break in service shall serve a new probationary period whether or not they previously completed a probationary period.
- B. Prior to the completion of the probationary period, an employee may be disciplined and/or released at the discretion of the University and without recourse to the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure of this Agreement.

Qualifying service includes regular straight time hours worked in one or more limited appointments at the University. However, any break in service of one hundred twenty (120) consecutive calendar days or longer shall result in a new twelve (12) month period for purposes of calculating the one thousand (1000) hour requirement for conversion to a career appointment. Such career designation shall be effective on the first day of the month following attainment of one thousand (1000) hours of qualifying service.

- C. Employees in limited appointments may be released or have their time reduced at the sole discretion of the University. A dispute arising from this Article may only be reviewed through Step 2 of the grievance procedure. An employee in a limited appointment shall be automatically released as of the last day of the appointment unless there is an earlier separation or a formal extension of the appointment.
- D. Limited employees shall not normally be hired instead of career employees.

4. In the event the University decides to abolish, establish, or change alternate work schedules for a group of employees, the University shall inform the affected employees and the Union, in writing, at least fifteen (15) calendar days prior to taking such action. Upon timely request of the Union, the parties shall meet and discuss the proposed changes.
5. Nothing in Section C shall infringe upon, interfere with or diminish in any way the University's right to ensure adequate staffing and coverage to meet operational requirements and necessities in an efficient and orderly manner.
6. Alternate work schedules may require a change to the employee's workweek in order to ensure full-time employees are scheduled for a forty (40) hour workweek on a regular basis in compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Act.

D. Posting of Work Schedules

Work schedules showing work shifts for employees for the period January 15 of one year through January 14 of the following year shall be posted on appropriate bulletin boards prior to the preceding December 1, and shall remain posted throughout the life of the schedule.

2. Compensatory time off shall requested by the employee and to be approved by the University and taken within the fiscal year it is earned. Employees may request use of compensatory time off. The compensatory time request must be made at least three (3) calendar days in advance of requested usage, where possible. Requests made with less than three (3) days' advance notice may be granted at the discretion of the supervisor. 3. Accumulation of compensatory time is limited to no more than forty (40) hours. An employee shall be paid for hours of overtime which exceed this limit.

If there is more than one employee with the least amount of overtime, the least senior employee will be assigned overtime. If an employee is ordered to work additional hours beyond their assigned shift and if the employee has received less than twenty-four (24) hours advance notice, the employee shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular hourly rate of pay for any such hours worked.

- C. Lateral Transfer

If a bargaining unit opening in another department is posted, any qualified employee may request a lateral transfer to that position. If an employee requests such a transfer and possesses the skills required, the transfer will be effected. Lateral transfers under this Article shall not normally result in a reduction in base compensation.
- D. Employees who are selected for promotion or transfer from the campus to the medical center or from the medical center to the campus, shall give management ten (10) calendar days' notice of such transfer or promotion.
- E. The Union agrees to cooperate with the University's effort to comply with state and federal affirmative action guidelines.
- F. Disputes arising from this Article may only be reviewed through Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

B. An out-of-class assignment requires prior approval of the Department Head.

C. Disputes arising out of this Article may be reviewed through the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures.

ARTICLE 12 TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

A. General

1. The University may permit employees to attend career related or position related development programs. Payment of fees, duration of released time and status of released time as time on pay or non-pay status is at the discretion of the University.

2. An employee may submit a request in writing to his/her supervisor to participate in a training and cross training program which is job related.

B. Training

1. When the University requires attendance at an educational training program, the University will pay the fees and related costs for materials, travel and per diem, and the employee's attendance at the actual program shall be considered as time worked. Payment of fees, costs, travel and attendance will also be in accordance with University policies and procedures.

2. The University may, in its sole discretion, pay the fees and related costs of non-required education or training programs upon the request of the employee. If the University declines the request, program related costs shall be borne by the employee.

3. A non-probationary, employee is eligible for up to 40 hours of paid release time per calendar year for job-related or University career-related training, except as described below. A part-time career employee's yearly entitlement shall be prorated based on his/her appointment rate. Such paid release time must be scheduled according to staffing requirements. Training courses provided by the University shall be included in the 40 hours.

a. An employee may be required to submit proof that he or she utilized the paid release time for the class, training or career development program.

b. If the University denied an employee's requested job or University career related training/development based on operational considerations, the employee must submit a written request in accordance with campus procedures to carry over the requested unused hours of paid release time for job-related and/or University career-related training. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied. Any hours approved for carry over must be used by the end of the following calendar year and will not carry over into any subsequent year.

4. The University acknowledges and supports career development training that will enhance the skills necessary to successfully perform the employee's job, or other University-career positions.

C. Fee Reduction

1. A career status employee who meets the admission requirements of the University is eligible for two-thirds reduction of both the University Registration Fee (URF) and the University Educational Fee (UEF) when enrolled in regular session courses of up to nine (9) units or three (3) courses per quarter or semester, whichever provides the greater benefit to the employee. Full fees will be assessed when an eligible employee's enrollment exceeds both nine (9) units and three (3) courses. In the event the University provides additional URF and UEF reductions to other eligible employees at their medical center/campus, the employees in this unit shall receive such fee reductions, to the same degree that other staff employees are so eligible.
2. Employees who are eligible to receive reduced fees under this policy are not eligible to receive an additional reduction in fees under the Policy and Procedures Concerning Part-Time Study.
3.  When more than one holiday occurs in a month, multiply the Hours of Holiday Pay by the number of holidays for which the employee is eligible in the month to determine the total holiday hours with pay.

B. Holidays Observed

The following holidays shall be granted:

New Year's Day
Martin Luther King's Birthday
President's Day
Cesar Chavez's Day
Administrative Floater at the Medical Center
Memorial Day
Juneteenth
Independence Day
Labor Day
Veterans Day
Thanksgiving Day
Day after Thanksgiving
Christmas Eve
Christmas Day
New Year's Eve

If the University establishes a new holiday, the new holiday will be added to the above list of holidays observed.

Holidays are considered to extend over a twenty-four (24) hour period, but no employee may receive more than eight (8) hours of holiday pay for each holiday.

C. Cesar Chavez Administrative Floating Holiday for Employees at Medical Center

1. Each member of the unit who works at the medical center shall be entitled to the Cesar Chavez floating holiday in lieu of the Cesar Chavez holiday mentioned in B above, under the following circumstances.
 - a. The employee is a member of the unit on November 1st of the applicable contract year, and
 - b. The employee uses the floating holiday between November 1st and October 31st of each contract year. In the event the employee does not use the personal holiday time before June 30th, the University may schedule the use of the holiday prior to the end of the contract year, the University will, at its sole non-grievable discretion, convert the Cesar Chavez floating holiday to either holiday compensatory time bank, or pay the employee eight (8) hours of holiday pay.
2. The University shall grant requests for the use of Cesar Chavez floating holiday time in accordance with medical center needs. If an employee requests and receives approval for the Cesar Chavez floating holiday and is then required to work, the employee is to be paid at one and one-half (1 ½) times the regular rate of pay plus holiday pay.

D. Holidays on Saturdays or Sunday

When a holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday is observed as a holiday. When a holiday falls on a Saturday, the preceding Friday is observed as a holiday unless an alternative day is designated by the President of the University.

E. Compensation for Holiday Work

When an employee's work schedule requires him/her to work on an observed holiday, the employee shall be paid at the premium overtime rate of one and one-half (1 ½) of their regular rate of pay, including any shift differential. In addition, the employee receives either eight (8) hours of holiday pay or compensatory time at the regular straight-time rate, including any shift differential. Holiday pay, as used in this section only, is not considered as hours worked for the purposes of determining overtime.

F. Alternate Full Time Work Schedules

An employee on an alternate full-time work schedule is entitled to the same number of holidays and the same number of paid holiday hours as are granted to regularly scheduled employees. An employee whose regular day off falls on a holiday observed by the University receives either another day off or compensating holiday pay.

An employee on an alternative work schedule whose regular day off falls on a holiday may select one of the following options:

1. An employee may use accrued vacation leave or compensatory time on the day of the holiday to make up the difference between holiday compensation hours received for the holiday and his/her assigned schedule of hours for the day; or

An employee may submit a request to work additional time during the same work week in which the holiday falls to "make up" the difference between holiday compensation hours received for the holiday and their assigned schedule of hours for the day. An employee's request will not be unreasonably denied and management has the right to assign the "make up" hours in the same work week as the holiday. All "make up" hours are paid at straight time. Employees may only include eight (8) hours of holiday time on the actual holiday when submitting their time sheets.

G. Special or Religious Holidays

An employee may observe a special or religious holiday, provided work schedules permit and provided that the time off is charged to accrued vacation or compensatory time, if applicable, or is without pay.

ARTICLE 14
SICK LEAVE-FACTORED LEAVE ACCRUALS

A. Purpose

Sick leave is provided to continue the salary of eligible employees who would otherwise be on pay status but who are unable to work because of illness or disability. D. Eligibility

An employee shall accrue full or proportionate sick leave credit for a sick leave accrual period. The following criteria shall apply:

1. An employee must be on pay status at least one-half (1/2) the working hours of the sick leave accrual period to accrue sick leave for that accrual period.

E. Use of Sick Leave

An employee shall be permitted to use accrued sick leave as provided below:

1. An employee shall not use sick leave prior to the time it is accrued.

To receive sick leave pay, an employee must notify his/her immediate supervisor or designee by telephone to advise him/her of the need for sick leave or leave a voice mail, one hour or more in advance of their shift, whenever possible, but no later than the beginning of the employee's work day except when the University determines that the employee's failure to notify is due to extreme circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

2. An employee shall not use accrued sick leave beyond a predetermined date of separation including retirement or layoff, or predetermined date beginning a leave without pay.
3. An employee may be required, when their absence exceeds three (3) consecutive scheduled days of work, to submit satisfactory documentation of personal or family illness, disability or death, to the University in order to receive sick leave pay.

Proof of absence may be required from an employee when a pattern of abuse is confirmed by the supervisor. Medical documentation may be required to verify illness to the employee's supervisor upon the employee's return to work.

4. A pregnant employee on approved leave without pay on the date certified by her doctor as the date on which she is no longer able to work, or the date of delivery, whichever is earlier, can use sick leave beginning with that day and continuing through the period that she is physically unable to perform the normal duties of her job.

5. Family Illness or Disability

8. An employee who has accrued sick leave but who is presently employed less than one-half time may use accrued sick leave, but not in excess of that employee's presently scheduled hours of work for any day.
9. No employee shall be disciplined for reasonable use of sick leave.

F. Transfer and Reinstatement of Sick Leave

1. An employee who is transferred, promoted, or demoted from one University position to another University position in which sick leave accrues and to which sick leave can be transferred shall have the sick leave transferred. An employee who is transferred, promoted, or demoted to a position in which sick leave does not accrue or to which sick leave cannot be transferred shall have accrued sick leave held in abeyance. If the employee later transfers to a position in which sick leave accrues or to which sick leave can be transferred, the previously accrued sick leave shall be reinstated.
2. An employee who is reemployed after a break in service of less than fifteen (15) calendar days shall have all sick leave from prior service reinstated.

C. Rate of Accruing Vacation

Vacation credit shall be accrued by an eligible employee beginning on the first day of the vacation accrual period during which the required qualifying service is completed, at the following rates:

D. Qualifying Service to Determine Rate of Vacation

Qualifying service to determine the rate of vacation credit shall be calculated as follows:

1. A month of service at the University at one half time or more is a month of qualifying service. Service prior to January 1, 1972, shall be included in determining length of service, but increased vacation benefits resulting from the change from full-time equivalent service to service at one-half time or more shall apply only to vacation credit earned after January 1, 1972.
2. Payment for service must have been made by the University or the State of California.
3. Time on military leave from the University or the State of California is included
4. Service need not be continuous.

E. Eligibility to Earn Vacation

An employee appointed to fifty percent (50%) or more of full time for a period of six (6) months or more is eligible to earn vacation from the date of the appointment. An employee who is not eligible to earn vacation by the nature of the appointment becomes eligible to earn vacation after six (6) continuous months in pay status at fifty percent (50%) or more and shall then be credited with vacation for the six (6) month period.

F. Waiting Period to Take Vacation

An employee who earned vacation from the date of the appointment shall not use such vacation until completing six (6) continuous months on pay status at fifty percent (50%) or more.

- G. An eligible employee who was employed from the State of California service following completion of six (6) months of State service at one-half time or more shall not serve another waiting period if the change did not involve a break in employment of more than fifteen (15) calendar days.

- H. An eligible employee who previously completed the required waiting period may use vacation credit without serving another waiting period, provided the break in service is less than six (6) months.

I. Accrual of Vacation

An employee shall accrue full or proportionate vacation credit for a vacation accrual period. The following criteria and procedures shall control vacation credit accrual:

1. Vacation credit shall accrue during leave with pay.

1. Vacation credit shall not be used prior to the time it is accrued, except when the Chancellor allows the use of anticipated vacation at times of holiday closures.

3. An employee shall not be paid vacation for the same period that the employee is working and on pay status in the employee's present position, or in any other position paid by University funds (see exception in paragraph K below).
4. Vacation schedules shall be established on the basis of seniority. Seniority, for the purposes of this section, shall be defined as the start date in the shop. If equal, the tiebreaker shall be University hire date. Vacation requests may be submitted by an employee in the month of January for vacation to be taken between February 1 and January 31 of the following year.
5. Vacation requests submitted after February 1 shall be reviewed on a "first-come, first served" basis. Management will respond to a request for unscheduled vacation as soon as practicable. Exceptions to these vacation requests may be granted to an employee who has made or wishes to make long-term vacation plans.
6. An employee may split his/her vacation time, but preference according to seniority shall only apply to one of the requests in that calendar year.
7. Occasional unscheduled vacation days may be granted subject to the operational requirements of the University, and provided that they are requested at least three (3) days in advance.
8. Vacation days requested less than three (3) days in advance may be granted at the discretion of supervision. The request for such vacation shall be made either orally or in writing through the immediate supervisor, and may be reviewed by a designated University manager. Verification of the need for vacation with less than three (3) days' notice may be required, and, if required, shall be submitted to the designated University manager prior to payment.

An employee who loses vacation because they have exceeded maximum accruals shall have hours that would have been accrued donated to catastrophic leave.

ARTICLE 16
WORK-INCURRED INJURY OR ILLNESS

A. This Article sets forth the application of sick leave and vacation for employees who are unable to work due to a work-incurred injury or illness compensable under the California Workers' Compensation Act and provides extended injury or illness compensable under the California Workers' Compensation Act and provides extended sick leave for such employees when sick leave is exhausted and when employees are still unable to work because of such injury or illness.

B. Use of Accrued Sick Leave and Vacation

An employee who accrues sick leave and vacation shall be permitted to use accrued sick leave and vacation to supplement temporary disability payments received under the California Workers' Compensation Act and consistent with applicable law as referenced under Article 43, Reasonable Accommodation.

C. Sick leave and vacation payments shall be the difference between the amount payable to the employee under the Workers' Compensation Act and the employee's regular salary. The additional payment made to an employee to provide the employee with the full salary prior to receipt of disability payments shall be deemed an advance temporary disability payment within the Workers' Compensation Act.

D. An employee who receives advance temporary disability payment shall reimburse the University for such payment. The reimbursement is used to restore proportionate sick leave and vacation credit as appropriate.

E. Extended Sick Leave

1. An employee who is receiving temporary disability payments and who has exhausted all accrued sick leave shall receive extended sick leave payments from the University in an amount equal to the difference between the payments from Workers' Compensation and eighty percent (80%) of the basic salary plus any shift differential which the employee would have received. If such an employee returns to part-time University duties, the earnings plus any temporary disability payments, if less than eighty percent (80%) of basic salary plus shift differential, shall be supplemented to eighty percent (80%) by extended sick leave payments, provided the employee continues to be medically authorized for Workers' Compensation temporary disability. Total extended sick leave payments shall not exceed twenty-six (26) weeks for any one injury or illness.
2. An eligible employee who does not have sufficient accrued sick leave to cover the three (3) calendar days waiting period for receiving Workers' Compensation payments shall receive extended sick leave payment to cover any part of the waiting period not covered by sick leave. Payment shall be made only after determination that the injury or illness is compensable under Workers' Compensation.
3. An employee who elects not to use all sick leave is not eligible for extended sick leave benefits.

F. Supplemental Leave

An employee who is receiving temporary disability payments and supplemental sick leave or vacation, as described in paragraphs B through D above, is considered on regular pay status, except for completion of the probationary period. Sick leave and vacation accrued during this period may be used as soon as they accrue.

G. Extended Sick Leave

An employee who is receiving temporary disability payments and extended sick leave benefits is considered to be on regular pay status, except for completion of the probationary period. However, sick leave and vacation accrued during this period is credited to the employee only upon return to work. If an employee separates without returning to work, the employee shall be paid for vacation for the period the employee received extended leave payment.

H. Leave Without Pay

An employee on leave without pay and receiving temporary disability payments accrues sick leave and vacation on the same basis as if regularly employed, but such accrual is credited to the employee only upon return to work. If an employee separates without returning to work, no payment shall be made for such vacation credit.

I. Family Care and Medical Leave

An employee who is receiving supplemental leave and/or extended sick leave as described above in Sections E – F shall have that time counted against the twelve (12) workweek entitlement to Family Care and Medical Leave provided that the employee is entitled to leave pursuant to Article 18, Section D – Family Care and Medical Leave.

J. Separation

An employee shall not use vacation, sick leave or extended sick leave to supplement Workers' Compensation payments beyond a predetermined date of separation or leave without pay. Any vacation credit remaining on the date of separation shall be paid on a lump sum basis.

1. Eligibility Criteria and Duration.

An eligible employee is entitled to up to twenty-six (26) workweeks of Military Caregiver Leave during a single twelve (12) month leave period. The employee must be a spouse, domestic partner, parent, son, daughter or next of kin of the covered service member to be eligible for this type of leave and must meet the eligibility requirements for Family Care and Medical Leave set forth in Section B.2.a.

2. Definitions

- a) "Covered service member" means (a) a current member of the regular Armed Forces (including a member of the Reserves; a member of the National Guard; or a member of the Armed Forces, the National Guard, or the Reserves who is on the temporary disability retired list) who has a "serious injury or illness" incurred or aggravated in the line of duty on active duty for which he or she is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; is otherwise in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list or (b) a veteran of the armed Forces (including the National Guard or the Reserves), provided that the veteran is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a "serious injury or illness" that was incurred or aggravated in the line of duty on active duty within five (5) years of the date on which the veteran left the Armed Services.
- b) "Outpatient Status" means the status of a service member assigned to (a) military medical treatment facility as an outpatient; or (b) a unit established for the purpose of providing command and control of members of the Armed Forces receiving medical care as outpatients.
- c) "Serious Injury or Illness" means an injury or illness (a) incurred or aggravated by the covered service member in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces that may render the service member medically unfit to perform the duties of his or her office grade, rank, or rating or (b) of a veteran of the Armed Forces (including the National Guard and the Reserves), provided that the veteran's injury or illness was incurred or aggravated in the line of duty on active duty and that the medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy that the veteran is receiving for that injury is occurring within five (5) years of the date the veteran left the Armed Forces.
- d) "Parent of a covered service member" means a covered service member's biological, adopted, or foster parent or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to the covered service member. The term does not include parents "in law".
- e) "Son or daughter of a covered service member" means the covered service member's biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or a child for whom the covered service member stood in loco parentis, and who is of any age.
- f) "Next of kin" means (a) the nearest blood relative of the covered service member (other than the covered service member's spouse, domestic partner, parent, son or daughter) or (b) the person who the covered service member has designated in writing as his or her nearest blood relative for purposes of Military Caregiver Leave.

Leave is applied on a per-covered service member, per-injury basis. Eligible employees may take more than one period of twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave if the leave is to care for a different covered service member or to care for the same service member with a subsequent serious injury or illness, except that no more than twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave may be taken within any "single twelve (12) month period" If an eligible employee does not use all of his or her twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave entitlement to care for a covered service member during this single twelve (12) month leave period, the remaining part of the twenty-six (26) workweek entitlement to care for the covered service member for that serious injury or illness is forfeited. As with other types of Family Care and Medical Leave, this leave may also be taken on an Intermittent or reduced schedule basis. If the need for intermittent or reduced schedule leave is foreseeable based on the planned medical treatment of the covered service member, the employee may be required to transfer temporarily, during the period that the intermittent or reduced leave schedule is required, to an available alternative position for which the employee is qualified and which better accommodates a recurring period of leave than does the employee's regular position.

The employee may also be required to provide confirmation of a covered family relationship between the employee and the service member.

5. Use of Accrued Paid Leave

Military Caregiver Leave is unpaid leave, except an employee may use sick leave in accordance with Article 14 – Sick Leave and shall use accrued vacation time prior to taking leave without pay.

6. Advance Notice

Whenever possible, an employee shall provide at least thirty (30) days' advance notice. If thirty (30) days' notice is not practicable, notice shall be given as soon as practicable. Failure to comply with this notice requirement may result in postponement of leave.

7. Reinstatement

Reinstatement shall be to the same position or, at the department's discretion, to an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment provided that the employee returns to work immediately following termination of the leave. If the employee would have been laid off or terminated had the employee been working during the leave period, the employee shall be afforded the same considerations afforded to other employees who are laid off or terminated pursuant to the provisions of Article 20 – Layoff and Reduction in Time.

8. Continuation of Health Benefits

Failure to perfect an incomplete certification may result in denial of the leave or denial of continuation of the leave.

2. For the Employee's Family Member

A serious health condition for the purposes of family illness leave is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which warrants the participation of the employee to provide supervision or care during a period of treatment or incapacity including psychological comfort.

When leave is requested to care for the employee's seriously ill family member, the University may, at its discretion, require in writing that an employee's request for Family Illness or Medical Leave be supported by a written certification issued to the University by the health care provider of the individual requiring care.

The certification shall be on a form provided by the University and shall include the following:

- a) The certification should include for the employee's family member a statement that the family member has a serious health condition which warrants the participation of a family member to provide supervision or care and an estimate of the amount of time that the health care provider believes the employee is needed to provide care during the period of treatment or supervision of the individual requiring care.
- b) Whether the employee will need to care for the family member intermittently or on a reduced work schedule, and the probable duration that the employee is needed to provide care.
- c) Confirmation of Family Relationship
 - i. University may, at its discretion, require an employee requesting leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition or requesting Parental Leave, to provide documentation of the familial relationship or proof of birth, placement for adoption or in foster care.
 - ii. Failure to provide documentation within fifteen (15) calendar days of the University's request may result in delay of the leave until the required documentation is provided. If the employee fails to provide the required documentation and the leave has not begun, the request for family and/or medical leave will be denied. If the leave has begun, the leave may, at the University's discretion, be discontinued; however, any leave taken is not FMLA leave

3. Return to Work

An employee who has been granted a Medical Leave for reasons other than pregnancy-related/childbearing disability shall be returned to the same or an equivalent position when the employee has been medically released to perform the essential job functions of his/her job. Failure to provide a medical release to return to work may result in the denial of the reinstatement until after the employee submits the required medical release certification. If the position has been abolished or otherwise affected by layoff and an equivalent position is not available, the employee shall be afforded the same considerations which would have been afforded had the employee been on pay status when the position was abolished or affected by layoff. A limited employee granted a Family Care and/or Medical Leave is not entitled to reinstatement to his/her position if the employee's limited appointment ending date occurs before the scheduled return date.

When the employee requests an intermittent leave or a reduced work schedule, the University may, at its sole, non-grievable discretion, require the employee to transfer temporarily to an available alternate position which the employee is qualified for and which better accommodates the employee's recurring period of leave. Such transfer shall have equivalent pay and terms and conditions of employment, but does not need to have equivalent duties.

An employee who fails to return to work on the approved anticipated date of return or any approved extension shall be considered to have abandoned his/her job. Such absences shall be treated in accordance with Article 44 – Resignation and Job Abandonment.

4. Use of Accrued Paid Leave

- a. An employee on approved Family Illness Leave may, at the discretion of the University, elect to use accrued vacation time and/or compensatory time off before taking leave without pay. If the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay. Accrued sick leave may be substituted for Family Illness Leave granted under this Section, pursuant to Article 14 - Sick Leave, Section E. 5.
- b. An employee on an approved Parental Leave may elect to use accrued vacation time and/or compensatory time off before taking leave without pay. If the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay.
- c. An employee on leave for his/her own serious health condition shall use accrued sick leave in accordance with the University's disability plan or as provided under Article 16 – Work-Incurred Injury or Illness. Employees not eligible for University disability benefits who are not on leave due to a work-incurred illness or injury shall use accrued sick leave prior to taking medical leave without pay. An employee may elect to use accrued compensatory time off or accrued vacation before taking leave without pay. However, if the employee's vacation leave accrual is at maximum, the employee will be required to use at least ten (10) percent of the vacation leave credit prior to taking leave without pay.

5. Duration

- a. Family Care and Medical Leave shall not exceed twelve (12) workweeks in any leave year. In the event University policy and/or State or Federal law result in a different date of commencement for this twelve (12) month period, the commencement period for employees in this bargaining unit shall conform to the commencement date generally applicable to other University employees.

- b. For the purpose of FMLA, only, twelve (12) workweeks is equivalent to four hundred eighty (480) hours of scheduled work for full-time employees who are normally scheduled for an eight (8) hours per day five (5) days per workweek (8/40) schedule. While the use of FMLA leave need not be consecutive, in no event shall an employee's aggregate use of FMLA leave exceed a total of twelve (12) weeks within the leave year.
- c. For employees who work part-time or a schedule other than an 8/40, the number of FMLA leave hours to which the employee is eligible shall be adjusted in accordance with his/her normal weekly work schedule. An employee whose schedule varies from week to week is eligible for a pro-rated amount of FMLA leave based on her/his hours worked over the previous twelve (12) weeks preceding the leave.
- d. When medically necessary and supported by medical certification, the University shall grant an eligible employee's request for a reduced work schedule or intermittent leave including absences of less than one (1) day. Only the time actually spent on the intermittent or reduced leave schedule shall be counted towards the employee's entitlement of twelve (12) workweeks in the leave year.
- e. When the employee requests an intermittent leave or reduced work schedule, the University may, at its discretion, require the employee to transfer during the time of restriction to an available alternate position for which the employee is qualified and which better accommodates the employee's recurring period of leave. Such transfer shall have equivalent pay and terms and conditions of employment, but does not need to have equivalent duties.

6. Continuation of Health Benefits

- a. An employee on an approved Family Care and/or Medical Leave shall be entitled, if eligible, to continue participation in health plan coverage (medical, dental, and optical) as if on pay status for a period of up to twelve (12) workweeks in the leave year. However, an employee who exhausts their entitlement to health plan coverage while on approved Pregnancy Disability Leave shall not be entitled to an additional twelve (12) workweeks of health plan coverage during any FML leave she subsequently takes for Parental Leave or any other CFRA-covered reason provided the employee has not exhausted her CFRA leave entitlement for that leave year. Other group insurance coverage and retirement benefits shall be continued in accordance with the provisions of the applicable group insurance and retirement system regulations.

7. Deferral or Denial of Family Care Leave Requests

- a. An employee who fails to give thirty (30) days' notice for a foreseeable leave in accordance with Section H4.b.1, with no reasonable basis for the delay, may have his/her request for leave denied or deferred until the requested certification is provided.
- b. An employee who fails to provide certification or recertification as required may have his/her request for leave denied or deferred until the requested certification is provided.
- c. An employee who fails to provide a required medical release certification to return to work may have his/her reinstatement denied until a medical release certification is provided.

8. Review of Denials or Deferrals of Family Care Leave Requests

- a. If an employee's request for Family Care and/or Medical Leave is denied, deferred, or otherwise provided short of the employee's initial request, such University action may, upon the employee's written request, be reviewed by the Department Head.

I. Disability Leaves other than FMLA/CFRA/Pregnancy Leave

A disability leave of absence with or without pay is a leave due to non-work related illnesses or injuries. An eligible career employee shall be granted leave from work for medical reasons. This leave includes the combined use of accrued sick leave and disability leave of absence without pay in accordance with the provisions of this Article and Article 14 – Sick Leave.

a. Eligibility

An employee may be eligible for a disability leave of absence with or without pay when he/she has exhausted his/her twelve (12) workweek Family Care/Medical Leave entitlement in a calendar year, or he/she is not otherwise eligible for Family Care/Medical Leave, or the employee has exhausted his/her four (4) month entitlement under Pregnancy Disability Leave, and he/she:

- 1. is medically incapable of performing the essential assigned functions of his/her job due to a non-work related illness or injury and
- 2. has furnished evidence of disability satisfactory to the University.

b. Duration

When the use of accrued sick leave and a disability leave of absence without pay are combined, a disability leave may be granted by the University for a total period of verified disability not to exceed six (6) months.

- d. In the event that the employee's accrued sick leave is greater than six (6) months, a disability leave of absence without pay in addition to the use of all accrued sick leave, shall not be granted.

- e. If an extension to a disability leave of absence within the total six (6) month period is not granted, an employee will be medically separated in accordance with Article 30 – Medical Separation.
- f. An employee who is receiving long term disability payments from a retirement system to which the University contributes will be medically separated on the basis of medical condition in accordance with Article 30 – Medical Separation.
- g. Return to Work – The employee shall not be reinstated from medically-related leave of absence until a medical release certification is provided to the University within the time limits specified by the department. A medical release certification shall include a statement by the employee's health care provider of the employee's ability to perform the essential functions of the position.

J. Jury Duty

- 1. When summoned, an employee shall be granted leave with pay for actual time spent on jury service and in related travel, not to exceed the employee's scheduled number of hours of work.
- 2. During the time a full-time employee is responsible to the court for jury duty, the University will convert the employee's usual work shift to a regular five (5) day, Monday through Friday, day shift basis.
- 3. When summoned, a part-time employee in a career position shall be granted leave with pay for actual time spent on jury service and in related travel which occur during the employee's regularly scheduled hours of work.
- 4. Employees shall provide a proof of jury service from the court to supervision upon return.

K. Witness Pay

When served with a subpoena which compels the employee's presence as a witness, a full-time employee in a career position on any shift or work schedule shall be granted leave with pay for actual time he/she was required to spend at the administrative or legal proceedings and in related travel, not to exceed the number of hours in the employee's normal work day and the employee's normal workweek. A part-time employee in a career position shall be granted leave with pay for time he/she was required to spend at the proceedings and in related travel which occurs during the employee's regularly scheduled hours of work. Leave with pay shall not be granted when an employee is the plaintiff or defendant in a proceeding, is called or subpoenaed as a paid expert witness not on behalf of the University, or is called or subpoenaed because of duties for another employer.

L. Leave For Work-Incurred Disability

An employee who is off pay status and receiving temporary disability payments under the Workers' Compensation Act may be granted, at the discretion of the department head, a leave without pay for all or part of the period during which temporary disability payments are received, except that any leave without pay which is granted shall not extend beyond a predetermined date of separation.

ARTICLE 19
DISCIPLINE AND DISMISSAL

A. General Provisions

1. The University shall have the authority to discipline or to dismiss a non-probationary career employee for just cause following progressive discipline. For purposes of illustration but not limitation, such action may be taken for misconduct or failure to perform satisfactorily.
2. The University may discipline without prior notice of intent by oral reprimand, written warning, or suspension without pay for five (5) working days or less.
3. Dismissal or suspension shall be preceded by at least one written warning, except in those situations in which the employee knows or reasonably should have known that the performance or conduct was unsatisfactory. The employee shall be provided a copy of disciplinary action as defined in Section B.1.
4. A non-probationary career employee who alleges that discipline and/or dismissal is not based on just cause, may appeal such action pursuant to the provisions in Article 23 – Grievance Procedure and Article 24 – Arbitration Procedure.
5. Written Warnings are grievable through Step 2 only.
6. Suspensions of five (5) days or more up to dismissal may be filed at Step (2) of the grievance procedure.

B. Types of Discipline

1. Discipline. Disciplinary action consists of a written warning, a suspension, a demotion, final written warning in lieu of suspension, or a dismissal.
2. Dismissal. A dismissal is the termination of employment of a non-probationary career status employee initiated by the University for just cause.
3. Demotion. A demotion is the assignment of an employee from his or her current position to a position in a class having a lower rate of pay, when such assignment is made for disciplinary reasons.
4. A counseling memo does not constitute discipline for the purposes of this Article.

C. Notice of Intent

1. The University shall provide written notice, as described in Part C.2 below, of intent to discipline by suspension without pay for more than five (5) working days, demotion, or dismissal.

2. Issuance and Content

a. Issuance

Written Notice of Intent to suspend for more than five (5) working days without pay, demote, or dismiss shall be given to the affected employee, either by delivery of the Notice to the employee in person, or by placing the Notice in an envelope addressed to the employee at the employee's last known home address. The Notice shall be placed in the United States Mail, or sent by courier service. The Teamsters Local 2010 Union Representative will be notified concurrently of the intended action by email sent to the designated Union Representative and by regular mail sent to the designated Teamsters Local 2010 office.

It shall be the responsibility of the employee to update the University of his/her current home address and of any change in such address, and the information so provided shall constitute "the employee's last known home address." Whether delivery is made in person or by mail, the Notice of Intent shall contain a "Proof of Service" indication the date on which the Notice of Intent was personally delivered or mailed. Such date of delivery or mailing shall be the "date of issuance" of the Notice of Intent.

b. Contents

The notice shall:

1. Inform the employee of the disciplinary action intended, the reason for the disciplinary action, and the effective date of the action;
2. Include an explanation of the charge(s) including, where appropriate, materials relied upon and on which the charge(s) is based;
3. Inform the employee of the right to respond, the person to whom any response must be directed, and the fact that such response must be received by said person within ten (10) calendar days of the date of issuance of the notice.
4. Inform the employee of his/her right to representation.

D. Response to Notice – Skelly Hearing

The employee shall have the right to a Skelly review, either orally or in writing, prior to the imposition of formal disciplinary action described in the Notice of Intent. The request for the Skelly review must be received within ten (10) calendar days from the date of issuance of the Notice of Intent.

After review of an employee's timely response, if any, the University shall notify the employee of any action to be taken. Such action to be taken may not include discipline more severe than that described in the Notice of Intent; however, the University may reduce such discipline without the issuance of a further Notice of Intent.

E. Investigatory Leave

In order to review or investigate allegations of conduct which, in the University's view, would warrant relieving the employee immediately from all work duties, the University may place an employee on investigatory leave without prior notice. Investigatory leave periods shall be limited to thirty (30) working days with pay, unless the University deems additional time is needed to complete the investigation; however, such extension beyond the thirty (30) working days shall be paid.

Investigatory Interviews – Weingarten Rights

If an employee is asked to meet with the University during any investigatory interview that could result in the imposition of discipline on the employee, the employee shall be entitled, when he or she requests it, to have a representative present during such meeting. The right to representation shall not unduly delay the meeting. UCI is not obliged to postpone the interview, nor to suggest or secure the alternate representation; however, the employee shall not be required to answer any questions without a representative present, unless the employee voluntarily chooses to do so.

The employee and representative, if requested by the employee, shall be on paid status during the investigatory interview. The right to representation does not apply to meetings held exclusively to inform an employee of a previously made disciplinary decision.

F. Destruction of Warning Letters

Warning letters will not be used and, upon written request, will be destroyed after eighteen (18) months from the date of the warning letter, provided that during such time there has been no further discipline for the same type of incident.

G. Copies of Discipline

Effective the first of the month following 60 days after ratification of the contract: When discipline exceeds a letter of warning, a copy of the notice of the final action will be emailed to the Teamsters Local 2010 Union Representative within seven (7) working days. Failure to provide such notice to Teamsters Local 2010 shall not delay the imposition of discipline upon the employee.

ARTICLE 20 LAYOFF AND REDUCTION IN TIME

This Article covers indefinite layoff and reduction in time, temporary layoff and reduction in time, and involuntary transfer of an employee to a limited position resulting because of the elimination of a career position.

A. Determination

1. The University shall determine when temporary or indefinite layoffs or reductions in time are necessary, due to lack of work or lack of funds.

B. Definitions

1. A layoff is an involuntary separation from employment or an involuntary transfer to a limited position of a career employee. Layoff shall also include involuntary reductions in the number of regularly scheduled hours of work. Layoffs may be temporary or indefinite.
2. A temporary layoff is a layoff in which the University specifies a date for recall to work or return to previous status of not more than four (4) months.
3. An indefinite layoff is a layoff for which no date for recall to work or return to previous status is specified.

C. Order of Layoff

1. Limited positions are normally the first positions to be reviewed when a decrease in staffing levels is necessary. The University shall attempt to minimize indefinite layoffs from career positions by first reviewing the necessity of limited appointments within the bargaining unit.
2. Indefinite layoff and reduction in time is effected by department and by class (title code), or by craft within a department. For the purposes of this Article, a craft is defined as employees in the journey level, lead and assistant supervisor positions. The order of indefinite layoff and reduction in time of employees in the same class or respective craft if applicable, within a department shall be in inverse order of seniority, except that the department head may retain employees irrespective of seniority, who possess skills, knowledge, or abilities which are not possessed by other employees in the same class, or respective craft if applicable. To the extent permitted by law, the University may also consider workforce diversity when making layoff decisions and implementing layoff actions.
3. Seniority

For the purposes of this Article, Seniority shall be defined as the most recent date of appointment to a bargaining unit position without a break in service. When employees have the same most recent date of appointment to a bargaining unit position without a break in service, the employees shall be laid off in alphabetical order of their last name.

D. Notice

1. For a temporary layoff, the University shall give, if feasible, thirty (30) calendar days' notice of the expected beginning and ending dates of the layoff.
2. An employee and the Union will receive at least forty-five (45) calendar days' advance written notice prior to indefinite layoff or reduction in time. If less than forty-five (45) calendar days' notice is granted, the employee shall receive pay in lieu of notice for each additional day the employee would have been on pay status had the employee been given forty-five (45) calendar days' notice.
3. The parties shall meet, upon request of the Union after receiving notice of layoff of bargaining unit employees, to discuss Union recommendations regarding cost savings and other potential alternatives to layoffs. These meetings shall take place within ten (10) days of the request by the Union, provided that the Union is available to meet within this time period.

E. Reemployment from the Indefinite Layoff

1. Right to Recall

A non-probationary career employee who is indefinitely laid off or reduced in time shall be recalled in order of seniority into any active and vacant career position for which the employee is qualified when the position is in the same class and department and at the same or lesser percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff. Right to recall is not extended to an employee who has not completed his/her probationary period.

2. Preference for Reemployment or Transfer

A non-probationary career employee who is separated or whose time is reduced because of indefinite layoff or who has received written notice of indefinite layoff or reduction in time within those two (2) calendar months prior to the layoff date shall be granted preference within the UCI Skilled Crafts Unit for reemployment or transfer to any active or vacant career position in the unit for which the employee is qualified when the position is:

- a. at the same salary level or lower
- b. at the same or lesser percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff.

Preference for reemployment or transfer is not extended to an employee who has not completed his/her probationary period.

The right(s) to be recalled to work and/or for preference for reemployment or transfer secured by Subparagraph E 1 and 2, above, respectively shall be exercisable only within the various Departments of the University. Accordingly, an employee employed at the main campus in Housing or Facilities or another smaller department or unit, e.g. Student Services, may exercise the recall, transfer, etc., rights secured by the aforementioned sections of the MOU only in their own department but not in relation to employment opportunities in other departments at the main UCI or at the Medical Center and vice versa for Medical Center employees.

3. Department heads may reject an employee on preferential rehire status who is a candidate for a vacant position only if the employee lacks the qualifications required of the position.
4. Continuation of Right to Recall and Preference for Reemployment.

A regular status employee with less than five (5) years of seniority shall have right to recall and preference for reemployment for one (1) year from date of layoff.

An employee with at least five (5) but less than ten (10) years of seniority shall have right to recall and preference for reemployment for two (2) years from date of layoff.

An employee with ten (10) years or more of seniority shall have right to recall and preference for reemployment for three (3) years from date of layoff.

Right to recall and preference for reemployment continue during, but are not extended by, temporary periods of employment in limited positions.

F. Termination of Right to Recall and Preference

Right to recall and preference for reemployment terminate if an employee:

1. Refuses an offer to return, at the same or greater percentage of time, to the department and class from which laid off; or
2. Accepts a career position at the same or higher salary level and the same or greater percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff; or

3. Refuses two (2) offers of employment for a career position at the same or higher salary level and the same percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff.
4. In addition, preference for reemployment terminates if an employee accepts any career position.
5. Right to recall and preference for reemployment are suspended when an employee does not respond to written notice of an employment opportunity. However, upon written request of the employee and approval of the Labor and Employee Relations Director or designee, both recall and preference may be reinstated.

G. Service Upon Reemployment

Reemployment within the period of right to recall and preference for reemployment or from temporary layoff provided continuity of service. Benefits and seniority accrue only when on pay status.

H. Other Provisions

1. Effect on Benefits

An employee on indefinite or temporary layoff may continue, if previously enrolled, in certain group insurance programs for the length of time provided by the University's Group Insurance Regulations, subject to the employee's payment of full premiums.

2. The University's contribution to the cost of a University-sponsored health plan will be provided for an employee on temporary layoff or reduction in time for a maximum of three (3) months in a calendar year where the employee's earning are insufficient to otherwise generate the University's contribution.

3. Retirement system regulations determine the effect on retirement benefits while an employee is on indefinite or temporary layoff.

4. Severance Pay

Employees who elect severance pay in lieu of preference/recall shall be paid a lump sum amount of one week of salary (based on a forty (40) hour week) for each full year of service from the most recent break in service, up to a maximum of sixteen (16) weeks of base pay.

ARTICLE 21 SUBCONTRACTING

- A. University management reserves the right to subcontract unit work, including work which has been subcontracted in the past. The University shall make reasonable efforts to perform bargaining unit work in-house within the limitations and requirements imposed by UC Policy and law.
- B. The University shall provide electronically to the Union and the Chief Steward, a quarterly summary of subcontracted work which is funded by the state of California Operations and Maintenance of Plant Budget and is less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in total, or

- C. The Chief Steward, or designee, may attend agreed upon regularly scheduled meetings to discuss the status of subcontracting with representatives from Facilities Management for Campus or Facilities Maintenance for the Medical Center. The University shall make reasonable efforts to have discussions prior to subcontracting out work, except in the case of an emergency or urgent need.
- D. The University agrees to notify the Union at least forty five (45) calendar days in advance of its intent to subcontract any unit work which would result in the layoff of unit employees, and shall meet and confer upon request regarding the subcontracting of such unit work. If agreement is not reached, the University may implement its decision.
- E. The University and the Union agree that any concerns the Union may have about subcontracted work as referenced in Section A above may be added to the agenda of the parties' quarterly labor-management meeting pursuant to the provisions of Article 33 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 22 UNIT WORK

- A. The University and the Union agree that bargaining unit work will be performed by bargaining unit employees and that Supervisors and non-unit employees will not normally perform work of unit employees.
- B. Supervisors will not work scheduled overtime unless (1) qualified unit members decline the overtime, (2) qualified unit members are otherwise unavailable for the overtime, or (3) unit members are not qualified to do the work.
- C. However, management reserves the right to assign supervisors to perform unit work to meet the emergency needs of the University that require immediate action to protect property, equipment, life, safety and health, including affected research as well as under exceptional circumstances in order to meet the operational needs of the University. The University will provide written justification to the Union within fourteen (14) days of the assigned work being done by non-unit members, when requested in writing.
- D. Non-unit employees may be assigned unit work only to meet the emergency needs of the University.

ARTICLE 23 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- A. Definition, Eligibility, Consolidation, and Representation

- 1. Definition

A grievance is defined as a claim that the University has violated a specific provision of this Agreement during the term of this Agreement.

- 2. Eligibility

A grievance may be brought to the attention of the University through this procedure by an individual employee within the bargaining unit or by the Union. A grievance may not be brought through the procedure by the University.

3. Consolidation

Grievances brought by or related to two or more bargaining unit employees, and multiple grievances by or related to the same employee, which concern the same incident, issue, or course of conduct, may be consolidated for the purposes of this procedure upon mutual agreement of the University and the Union, provided that the time limits described in this Article shall not be shortened for any grievance because of the consolidation of that grievance with other grievances. The parties may, by mutual agreement, consolidate grievances on similar issues at any level of the grievance procedure.

4. Representation

An employee shall have the right to be represented at all steps of the Grievance Procedure by one person of the employee's choice other than a University employee who has been designated by the University as supervisory, managerial or confidential. If the employee chooses to be represented by the Union, the steward and/or the Business Representative shall have the right to be present at all steps of the Grievance Procedure.

B. Procedure

1. Respond and File – The terms “respond” and “file” as used in this Agreement refer to personal delivery, postmarked, transmittal by facsimile, or electronic mail.

 - b. If personal delivery is used, the calendar date of delivery shall establish the date of response or filing.
 - c. If facsimile transmittal is used either to file or respond to a grievance, the facsimile transmittal cover letter must be returned and shall include the signature of the receiving party acknowledging receipt as well as the date of receipt. A response of filing shall not be considered accomplished in the absence of such date and signature on the cover letter.
 - d. If electronic mail is used, the receiving party must respond, acknowledging receipt and date of receipt of the electronic mail transmission.

C. Grievance Procedure – In

Before commencing the formal grievance procedure, an individual employee, or group of employees, with or without their representative, may first attempt to resolve the alleged grievance informally. When an employee or representative requests such a meeting, an Informal Review meeting shall be held with the immediate supervisor within 15 calendar days of the request. Informal resolution of grievances at the lowest possible level is an objective shared by the University and Teamsters Local 2010. Informal attempts of settlement to resolve the grievance shall not extend time limits including the initial 30- day filing deadline.

D. Grievance Procedure – Formal Review

1. Step 1:

A formal grievance must be filed in writing on a grievance form mutually agreed to by the parties. The form may be amended by mutual agreement of the parties. The designated University official must receive the written grievance within thirty (30) calendar days after the date on which either the employee or the Union knew or could be expected to know of the event or action which gave rise to the grievance or within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date of the employee's last day on pay status, whichever occurs first. Formal grievances must set forth:

- a. The specific section(s) and provision(s) of the Agreement alleged to have been violated;

The University shall render a written decision within fifteen (15) calendar days following the date of completion of the Step 1 meeting or fifteen (15) days from waiving the Step 1 meeting. If the department's response is not issued within the established time limits or if the grievance is not resolved, the grievance may be appealed to Step 2.

2. Step 2:

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, the grievance may be appealed in writing by the employee or his/her representative to the designated Labor and/ Employee Relations official. The written appeal must be received by the designated Labor and/ Employee Relations official within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date on which the written response to Step 1 was issued or due.

Within fifteen (15) calendar days of the receipt of the Step 2 appeal, the designated Labor and Employee Relations official shall schedule a meeting to discuss the grievance. During the meeting, the employee and/or his/her representative shall present all evidence and contentions relevant to the grievance. The Step 2 meeting may be waived by mutual agreement and confirmation by either party.

3. Decision

The decision will be emailed to the employee(s) and his/her representative. A copy of the decision shall be sent by Proof of Service to the Union. Such decision shall not set any precedent. The union may appeal the grievance to arbitration pursuant to Article 24, Arbitration Procedure, within thirty (30) calendar days of the date on which the decision was received by the Union.

4. Waiver of Steps

The Senior Director of Workforce Relations or designee and the Union Representative may mutually agree in writing to waive any and all steps of the Grievance procedure. Such written agreement must be executed in advance of the expiration of the specific applicable time limits, i.e. no later than the last day of the applicable time limit.

C. Time Limits

Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties in writing in advance of expiration of the time limits, except for the Step 1 deadline for filing a formal grievance. Deadlines which fall on a University non-business day will automatically be extended to the next business day. If the grievance is not appealed to the subsequent step of the procedure with applicable time limits, and an extension has not been agreed to in advance, the grievance will be considered settled on the basis of the University's written response. Failure by the University to reply to the employee's grievance within the time limits specified automatically grants to the union the right to process the grievance to the next step of the grievance procedure.

D. Pay Status

Whenever the University and the Union convene a meeting to mutually resolve grievances during the scheduled work time of an employee who is a grievant or a representative, reasonable release time shall be granted upon advance request to the employee(s) involved.

Time spent at these meetings shall be considered time worked. When such meetings are convened outside an employee's scheduled work time, no release time shall be granted. University employees called as witnesses at such meetings shall be released from work with reasonable advance request and granted leave with pay for reasonable time spent in meetings. Time spent in preparation of a grievance shall not be on pay status. Upon advance request, a reasonable amount of time spent during scheduled work hours in investigation of a grievance prior to formal filing shall be granted on pay status.

The University will make a good faith effort to alter the work hours for grievants and/or stewards who do not work the day shift. Said grievants and/or stewards shall not suffer a loss of regularly assigned shift pay when participating in the grievance procedure.

E. Resolution

Informal resolution may be agreed upon at any stage of the grievance process. Prior to the resolution of any formal grievance in this bargaining unit, the Union shall be notified.

ARTICLE 24
ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

A. Request for Arbitration

A request for arbitration may be made only by the Union and only after exhaustion of the Grievance Procedure. The request for arbitration must be received by the designated Labor and Employee Relations Official within twenty (20) calendar days of the receipt of the Step 2 grievance decision by the Union from the designated University official. Proof of service must accompany these mailings.

B. Selection of Arbitrators

Within fourteen (14) calendar days of a request for arbitration, the parties shall meet and attempt to mutually agree to the selection of any qualified and available person to serve as an arbitrator. If the other party agrees, that proposed arbitrator shall be selected for the arbitration in accordance with the terms of Article 24. Should the parties fail to select the arbitrator, they shall use the list of arbitrators herein by randomly drawing three (3) names. The first arbitrator's name drawn shall be contacted. If the arbitrator's first available date is more than ninety (90) calendar days from the date of the request for arbitration, the parties may agree to contact the next arbitrator's name drawn. If neither the second nor third arbitrator is available within ninety (90) calendar days, the selection process shall be repeated until an arbitrator is selected.

C. Arbitration Procedure

1. The arbitration proceeding shall provide an opportunity for the Union and the University to examine and cross-examine witnesses under oath and to submit relevant evidence. Relevant material and the names of all witnesses who are to be called shall be identified by the parties prior to the hearing. To the extent possible, witnesses and material should be identified at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the hearing.
2. The arbitrator may not admit settlement offers as evidence at the arbitration hearing.
3. Prior to the arbitration, the Union and the University shall attempt to stipulate as to the issue(s) to be arbitrated and to as many facts as possible.
4. Settlement proposals may be offered at any stage prior or during arbitration.
5. The arbitration hearing shall be closed to the public, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing.
6. The arbitrator, following the close of the record of the hearing, shall consider the evidence presented and render a written decision. The written decision shall include a brief description of each issue under submission, the position of the parties, the findings of facts, the arbitrator's conclusion(s) as to violation of the Agreement, if any, and, where appropriate, a remedy.

The arbitrator shall be limited to interpreting the written provisions of the Agreement regarding the issues submitted and shall have no power to add to, delete from, or otherwise alter the terms of Agreement. The arbitrator shall have no jurisdiction to decide a grievance which was not received by the University within the time limits set forth in Article 23, Section B. The arbitrator shall have no jurisdiction to decide issues not specifically identified on the initial grievance form filed by the Union.

7. The arbitrator's fees shall be borne equally by the parties. Expenses for stenographic or other services or facilities shall be borne equally by the parties.

D. Decision and Remedy

1. If the grievance is sustained in whole or in part, and subject to the limitations set forth in section D.2 below, the remedy shall not exceed restoring to the employee the pay, benefits, or rights lost as a result of a violation of the Agreement, less any compensation and benefits received from any source, including, but not limited to, Workers' Compensation and Unemployment Insurance Benefits. The decision of the arbitrator, within the limits described herein, shall be final and binding and distributed to the parties within thirty (30) calendar days of the close of the record of the hearing, unless the arbitrator notifies the parties that the time frame cannot be met.
2. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award back wages or other monetary reimbursement, nor shall the University be liable on a grievance claiming back wages or other monetary reimbursement for:
 - a. any period of time during which an extension of time limits has been granted by the University at the request of the Union; or
 - b. any period of time between the first date the arbitrator is available for an arbitration hearing and the date of the hearing, when the first date is rejected by the Union; or
 - c. any period of time greater than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the date of the Informal Review, Step 1, of the Grievance Procedure.

E. Release Time and Pay Status

Whenever an arbitration hearing or a meeting convened to resolve the arbitration is scheduled during the regular work time of an employee who is a grievant or a representative, reasonable release time with pay shall be granted to such employee(s) involved so long as a written request for release time is received at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance. Employees so released shall be granted leave with pay. When arbitrations or meetings occur outside an employee's schedule work time, no employee release time shall be granted. University employees called as witnesses may be released from work for reasonable time spent in meetings convened to resolve the arbitration and for the arbitration hearing.

Time spent in investigation and preparation for arbitration shall be on pay status as follows:

- a. Up to a maximum of ten (10) hours per month not to exceed fifteen (15) hours per case in total will be granted to bargaining unit employees for the preparation of a case that has been scheduled for hearing in arbitration; and
- b. A request for the release time described in subsection (a) must be made to the grievant's and/or the representative's immediate supervisor at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the activity.

An employee shall not be required to perform work which he/she reasonably believes is unsafe, until the safety concern of the employee has been reviewed by the designated University safety official. Management shall contact the designated University safety official, and the employee may be reassigned to perform other work. If the work in question is determined to be safe by the designated University safety official, the employee may be ordered to perform the work. It is expected that employees understand the need for safety equipment and protective clothing, the necessity of training before undergoing hazardous procedures, and the importance of discussing workplace hazards before the fact and planning to mitigate them.

Bargaining unit members will:

- 1. Receive appropriate hazardous materials training. Other appropriate safety training will be provided to bargaining unit employees, based on operational needs and legal requirements. For applicable positions, the University will provide N95 fit tests as required by law.

 - 1. A non-probationary career employee is unable to perform essential assigned functions with or without reasonable accommodation due to a medical condition documented by the employee's physician and/or University appointed physician, that employee may be medically separated.

2. A medical separation may also be based on the receipt of disability payments from a retirement system to which the University contributes.
3. An employee shall not be separated under this Article while he/she is drawing accrued sick leave. However, the employees may be separated for medical or other reasons if the date of separation was set prior to the commencement of sick leave and if the employee is afforded all rights by the employee's retirement system.

C. Notice of Intent

Advance written notice of the intention to medically separate shall be given to the employee, either by delivery of the notice to the employee in person, or by placing the notice in an envelope addressed to the employee at the employee's last known home address. The notice shall be placed in the United States mail or sent by courier service. The Union will be notified concurrently of the intended action. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to update the University of any change in such address. Whether delivery is made in person or by mail, the Notice of Intent shall contain a "Proof of Service" indicating the date on which the Notice of Intent was personally delivered or mailed. Such date of delivery or mailing shall be the "date of issuance" of the Notice of Intent.

If it has been determined that separation is appropriate, the employee shall be given written notice of medical separation. The notice of separation shall state the employee's right to appeal pursuant to the Grievance Procedure in Article 23 and the Arbitration Procedure in Article 24.

E. Special Reemployment Procedures

For a period of one (1) year following the date of a medical separation, a former regular status employee may be selected for a position within the unit without the requirement that the position be posted. This assistance shall include information about vocational rehabilitation services, reasonable accommodation, and special selection procedures, if applicable.

The employee shall submit medical documentation to the University to assess whether the employee has a disability and the employee's functional limitations so that possible reasonable accommodation can be identified. Upon receipt of the medical documentation, the University will engage in the interactive process with the employee to determine if a reasonable accommodation is feasible.

ARTICLE 32 DEATH PAYMENTS

Upon the death of an employee who has been on pay status at least fifty (50) percent of time at least six (6) continuous months without a break in service prior to death a sum equal to the deceased's regular salary for one month shall be paid to the deceased's spouse, or if there is no spouse, to the deceased's eligible dependent (s), or if there is neither a surviving spouse nor eligible dependent(s), to the beneficiary designated in the deceased's University-paid life insurance policy. Any vacation, salary, overtime, or other payments due and payable to the employee at the time of death shall be paid to the surviving spouse, or eligible dependent(s), or estate. The University shall not arbitrarily deny a particular request for released time.

B. Union Access

Such use shall be arranged in advance and in accordance with campus/hospital/laboratory procedures and will not be unreasonably denied. Room reservations shall not be canceled by the University except where unforeseen circumstances require the room to be used for purposes such as teaching, or patient care-related purposes or staff conferences. If a reserved room is canceled, the University will attempt to provide a comparable alternative space.

When required by the University, the Union shall reimburse the University for use fees or expenses, such as security, maintenance, and clean-up costs, incurred as a result of the Union's use such as facilities.

E. Union Stewards

The Union shall be entitled to designate employees to act as stewards for the employees covered by this Agreement. F. No Reprisals for Union Activity

The University is prohibited from imposing or threatening to impose reprisals, from discrimination or threatening to discriminate against stewards, or otherwise interfering with, restraining, or coercing stewards because of the exercise of any rights given by this Agreement. A steward or representative of Teamsters Local 2010 may complain or file a grievance to the designated Workforce Relations official concerning the alleged steward reprisal. If the grievance is not resolved, it may be the subject of an unfair labor practice charge. Disputes arising from this Article are not subject to the Arbitration Procedures of this Agreement.

If the University's error resulted in deductions less than the correct amount, the University shall make the additional required deductions from the affected employee(s) subsequent earnings to make up the difference between the actual and correct amounts in accordance with current payroll policy regarding additional deductions. However, additional deductions from the employee's/employees' subsequent earnings shall not exceed two times the normal dues amount in any given pay period.
3. If the error results in payment of more than the correct amount and the Union has received the funds, the Union shall reimburse the employees in a timely manner.
4. If the parties cannot agree on the amount of the appropriate deduction the union may grieve the matter only as a union grievance.

ARTICLE 36 SEVERABILITY

In the event that any provision of this Agreement is declared invalid or void by statute or judicial decision, such action shall not invalidate the entire Agreement. It is the express intention of the parties that all other provisions not declared invalid or void shall remain in full force and effect in the event that any provision of this Agreement is declared invalid or void, the parties agree to

- G. Nothing herein constitutes a waiver of the University's right to seek appropriate legal relief in the event of a violation of this Article.

ARTICLE 38 WAIVER

The University and the Union acknowledge that, during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each party had the right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that this Agreement constitutes the entire contract arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity. Therefore, the University and the Union, for the term of this Agreement, each voluntarily waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated, to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter not referred to or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in the Agreement, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of the parties at the time they negotiated or signed this Agreement. The parties further agree that, upon execution of this Agreement, any rights or terms and conditions of employment previously applicable to employees pursuant to the Staff Personnel Policies shall terminate and no longer apply.

ARTICLE 39 UNIVERSITY BENEFITS

A. General Conditions

1. Eligible employees may participate in a number of benefit programs generally available to other eligible non-managerial, non-supervisory, non-confidential, non-academic employees of the University. The University health and welfare plans provide an annual open enrollment period during which eligible employees may elect to change plans or coverage options. Open enrollment provides an opportunity for employees to choose amongst plans due to circumstantial life change of the employees, changes in the coverage and costs of each plan, and changes in plan availability which may change from year to year. The University may, at its option alter its health and welfare programs and/or retirement system plans (UCRS). Such alterations include, but are not limited to altering eligibility criteria, establishing new coverage, altering or deleting current coverage, altering employee and University rates of contribution, or changing the carrier for established plans or programs. In the event the University makes such alterations, the changes will apply to employees eligible for benefits within the unit in the same manner as they apply to other eligible non-represented staff employees at the same campus/laboratory.
2. The sole exceptions to the above shall be any alterations proposed by the University which provide benefits that differ from those benefits of other eligible non-represented staff employees at the same campus/laboratory. With regard to such changes, the University agrees to meet and confer with respect to the proposed changes in accordance with the provisions of HEERA.
3. The University's maximum monthly rates of contribution for bargaining unit employees who are eligible for and elect to enroll in a health plan shall be the same as the contribution rates for such plans for other staff employees.

ARTICLE 42
PERSONNEL FILES

A. General Provisions

1. Personnel files (including electronic or paper file) shall be located in the employee's employing department or the Human Resources Department. It is understood that there shall only be one (1) official personnel file for each employee. If the University relocates the employee's official personnel file, the Teamsters Local 2010 UCI Representative will be notified.
2. Information in the Files – An employee's personnel file shall contain information pertaining, but not limited to such items as employment applications, tests, references, job specifications; honors and awards, performance evaluations, discipline, attendance, letters of recommendation and other relevant and necessary information specified by the University.
3. Upon request, an employee and/or his/her representative shall be able to review his/her personnel file within a reasonable period of time in the presence of a representative of the University.

B. Request for Inspection

Where the University determines that operational requirements permit, an employee shall be granted a reasonable amount of time in without-loss-of-straight-time pay status to review his/her personnel file(s). When granting such requests, the University shall take into account the frequency of such requests and the amount of time the employee is or will be engaged in such activity. Alternatively, an individual may provide the University with a written authorization allowing a designated Teamsters Local 2010 representative to receive a copy of the employee's personnel file(s) or identified portions thereof. Such written authorization shall be valid for a period of twenty (20) calendar days from the date thereof.

C. Grievance Files

Records involving the processing of an employee's grievance such as the grievance form, step appeals and responses, and settlement documents will be kept in a file separate from the employee's personnel file.

D. Protections from Disclosure

Records protected by recognized legal privilege and records exempted from disclosure by law may be withheld from the employee and/or the employee's representative. Neither an employee nor his/her representative shall be entitled to review confidential pre-employment information.

E. Fees

Fees may be charged for making copies of personnel file information or extracts thereof, however, there shall be no charge for the first copy of the individual employee's own records. When they are requested, copies will be provided within a reasonable period of time. There will be no fees where an employee requests their electronic file be sent electronically.

F. An employee shall be provided a copy of any written documents related to the employee's performance, including but not limited to Letters of Commendation or complaints, when such documents are placed in the employee's personnel file.

G. Correction of File

If an employee believes that a document was placed into their personnel file in error, the employee may make a written request to Workforce Relations to have the document removed or file corrected. The University shall notify the employee in writing of the correction or of its denial of said request.

ARTICLE 43 REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

A. The University will provide reasonable accommodation to qualified employees with disabilities, subject to defenses available under applicable State and Federal law, when such disabilities limit their ability to perform the essential functions of their jobs. This section shall not be construed as a guarantee of a specific form of accommodation nor shall accommodation in one case establish a precedent for similar or dissimilar circumstances, since all accommodations will be designed specific to the functional abilities of the employee in coordination with the requirements of the job.

B. As part of the interactive process, the University shall analyze the affected employee's position. Such analysis shall identify essential functions (critical and important tasks) and conditions of the work environment to aid in determining if reasonable accommodations can be made for the employee's disability without undue hardship. When appropriate, a similar accommodation analysis shall be conducted of the same or equivalent positions for which the employee may apply and is otherwise qualified, consistent with applicable law.

- C. The employee is responsible for providing the medical documentation necessary to assist in understanding the nature of any required accommodation to a disability. Such documentation shall relate specifically to the job analysis information provided by the University and shall, at the University's option, be subject to confirmation by a University-appointed physician. The University shall pay the cost of a University-appointed physician. The employee may also provide medical documentation from a physician of his/her own choosing, which shall be considered by the University.
- D. When recommended by a vocational rehabilitation counselor and approved by the appropriate University official, a qualified former non-probationary career disabled employee may be offered temporary trial employment to evaluate the employee's interests and abilities. The length of this trial employment, which shall not exceed one year, shall be determined by the counselor in consultation with the employing Department/Division Head. Positions used for trial employment shall not be designated as career, except that an employee shall maintain benefits to the extent permitted by benefit plan rules.

ARTICLE 44 RESIGNATION & JOB ABANDONMENT

A. Resignation

Employees who voluntarily separate from employment are, by definition, considered to have resigned their employment with the University. An employee who retires or otherwise voluntarily separates from a position with the University shall be required to submit a letter of resignation as notice of termination. The letter of resignation should be submitted at least fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the effective date of such resignation/termination, if possible.

1. The final paycheck (including earnings to date, overtime, compensatory time and vacation hours) shall be paid to the employee (in the form of a check) at the employee's work location on the day of separation when:
 - a. An employee is discharged;
 - b. An employee has a predetermined ending date; or
 - c. An employee has given at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice of intention to quit
2. When an employee does not give seventy-two (72) hours' notice of intention to quit, the University shall make the final paycheck available within seventy-two (72) hours. Upon the employee's request, the final paycheck may be mailed to an address designated by the employee. If the date of pay falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or weekday holiday, actual payment may be made on the next business day. Monday through Friday will be considered business days (including Medical Centers and other 24/7 operations).

3. Failure to report to work without having submitted a written notice of resignation/termination shall be treated as an abandonment by the employee of his/her position with the University.

B. Job Abandonment

The University may treat unexcused failure to report to work for five (5) consecutive scheduled work days as an employee's abandonment of, and resignation from, his/her University position.

1. In the case of such job abandonment/resignation, the University shall provide the employee with written notification of its intent to separate her/him. This notification shall include the reasons for separation, the employee's right to respond to the University within fourteen (14) calendar days, and a Proof of Service. The notification shall be sent to the employee's last known mailing address.
2. At the option of the employee, his/her response may be written or may be a meeting with a designated University official who has the authority to effectively recommend reinstatement of the employee.
3. Following the employee's timely response, or if no response was provided within the fourteen (14) calendar days, the designated University official shall issue a final decision.
4. The University's final decision, following completion of the requirements in B.1-3 above, is not subject to the grievance and/or arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

- C. The University shall notify the employee in writing at the employee's last known mailing address of all actions under the provision of this Article.

ARTICLE 45
PAY FOR FAMILY CARE AND BONDING

A. General

1. In order to support employees' need to take leave to care for their family members, the University offers eligible employees Pay for Family Care and Bonding (PFCB), which is a partial income replacement option for up to eight workweeks per calendar year that may be available to employees taking Family and Medical Leave (FML) as set forth below. Article 45 modifies Article 18 – Leaves of Absence and gives employees the option to be paid during FML using PFCB in accordance with the terms below.
2. In order to be eligible for PFCB, an employee must be on an approved block Family and Medical Leave (FML) taken for one of the qualifying reasons below, and the employee must be taking that leave in a block of a minimum of one workweek.
3. Family and Medical Leaves that qualify for the PFCB option are those leaves taken under the FMLA and/or CFRA for parental bonding, to care for a family member with a serious health condition, for Military Caregiver Leave, or for Qualifying Exigency Leave. Section H in Article 18 - Leaves of Absence outlines the eligibility requirements for Family and Medical Leave. PFCB is not an option available during any other type of leave.

4. If an employee elects to use PFCB for a particular qualifying FML block leave rather than using paid leave accruals or taking the leave without pay, the employee must continue to use PFCB until they either exhaust their full eight workweeks of PFCB for the calendar year or that qualifying FML block leave ends. If their leave ends before they have used the full eight workweeks of PFCB for the calendar year, the remainder is available to use during a qualifying FML block leave later in the calendar year.
5. An employee may not use any paid leave accruals (e.g., vacation, sick leave, PTO, CTO, as applicable), while receiving PFCB.

B. PFCB Calculation

The PFCB option provides pay calculated at seventy percent (70%) of an employee's eligible earnings.

a. Eligible Earnings

Eligible earnings include an employee's base salary payable through the University. Eligible earnings do not include (if applicable) bonuses, perquisites, overtime pay, out of classification pay, shift differentials, uniform allowances, certification pay, specialty pay, emergency response pay, charge differentials, on-call differentials, or any pay that is received in addition to that of the employee's regular appointment, and any other additional cash compensation received that is more than 100% of the base salary of the full-time equivalent of the employee's regular position.

b. Appointments Established at a Fixed Percentage

If the employee has an appointment established at a fixed percentage, PFCB is based on the salary rate in effect during the employee's leave.

c. Appointments Established at a Variable Percentage

If the employee has an appointment established at a variable percentage, eligible earnings are an average of the employee's eligible earnings for the three calendar months (for an employee paid on a monthly basis) or six pay periods (for an employee paid on a bi-weekly basis) immediately prior to the period in which the leave begins, excluding periods with furlough or approved leave without pay. This average is calculated as follows:

- i. For an employee paid on a bi-weekly basis, the sum of hours paid in the six pay periods immediately prior to the period in which the leave begins is divided by 12 to determine the average hours worked per week. The average hours worked per week is then multiplied by 0.7 to determine the number of hours per week the employee is to be paid at 70%.

- ii. For an employee paid on a monthly basis, the sum of the time paid in the three calendar months immediately prior to the period in which the leave begins is divided by 3 to determine the average time worked per month. The average time worked per month is then multiplied by 0.7 to determine the time per month the employee is to be paid at 70%.

If the consecutive three months or six bi-weekly pay periods immediately preceding the beginning of the leave cannot be used due to furlough or approved leave without pay, the look-back period may be extended up to, but no longer than, one year prior to the beginning of the leave, using the most recent applicable pay periods.

C. Pay and Benefit Considerations

- i. Accruals and Service Credit

Because an employee is paid 70 percent of eligible earnings when receiving PFCB, accruals and service credit are calculated as if the employee is on pay status for 70 percent of their normal hours.

- ii. Taxability and Deductions

PFCB is considered taxable wages. An employee's normal deductions are taken from PFCB.

- iii. Benefits

Health and welfare benefits deductions will be taken from PFCB in accordance with the employee's benefit elections. Receiving PFCB does not, in itself, affect benefits status or eligibility. However, benefits regulations affecting return to pay status after a leave without pay will apply if an employee returns to pay status by receiving PFCB.

Article 46

One steward may represent the Union at the meeting during worktime without a loss of compensation. The Union must notify the University, at least one day prior to the meeting, whether a union steward will attend the meeting.
 - d. In the event employees who are new to the Skilled Trades bargaining unit do not attend an in person new employee orientation as defined in this agreement, the new Unit employee shall be permitted to meet privately with the Teamsters 2010 representative for 30 minutes of paid time at their worksite for the purpose of sharing information. Such meeting shall occur within five (5) days of the Union's request.

- e. Placement on the agenda as described above will be subject to a meet and discuss in order to accomplish the goals of this side letter.

5. Access to Employee Information

The University shall provide to the Union, no later than the first pay period following the date of hire, with the following new employee information: Name, Classification, Hiring Unit (Department), Physical Work Location (UCI Facility), Home Phone, Personal Cell Phone, Personal Email Address, and Home Address. Employees may prevent release of their home addresses, personal telephone numbers and/or personal e-mail addresses by stating their objections in writing to the University that they do not want this information disclosed to the Union.
- b. All K9 employees. This same information (Name, Classification, Hiring Unit (Department), Physical Work Location (UCI Facility), Home Phone, Personal Cell Phone, Personal Email Address, and Home Address), for all members of the bargaining unit, shall be available to the Union in the FTP data file managed by the UC Office of the President. The parties agree that the requirement to provide this information to the Union every 120 days under AB 119 is satisfied by providing to the Union access to this data file.
