CONTINGENT UPON SETTLEMENT OF ALL ISSUES

SIDE LETTER
University Benefits

If the University and CUE engage in the meet and confer process outlined in the last two sentences of Article 42 – University Benefits, Section A., with regard to 1) alterations which affect only bargaining unit employees and/or 2) alterations proposed by the University which reduce the UCRS retirement benefits of bargaining unit employees, the parties understand that the meet and confer process is pursuant to HEERA.

In order to effectuate this meet and confer process the University will provide written notice to CUE as soon as is practicable but in no event later than one hundred twenty (120) calendar days prior to the effective date of the proposed changes. Both parties agree to commence the meet and confer process within thirty (30) calendar days of the written notice.

The parties further understand that upon the conclusion of the HEERA required impasse procedures for the meet and confer process the University may impose its changes and that the contractual prohibition against strikes and concerted activities provided for in the No Strikes article shall be waived.
