

ARTICLE 25

A. WAGES

1. Teaching Assistant, Teaching Fellow, Graduate Student Instructor, Associate In

A Teaching Assistant, Teaching Fellow, Graduate Student Instructor or Associate In, who is not an Instructor of Record who has a 50% appointment during summer session, shall be compensated at the rate resulting from dividing the academic term gross salary by the maximum workload of 220 hours (quarter) or 340 hours (semester) and multiplying the result by 120 hours (for a six-week summer session). This compensation rate shall apply proportionately to other percent appointments and/or to summer sessions of different lengths. ASEs and groups of ASEs who are currently paid at a rate greater than this in summer 2007 shall continue to be paid on that basis (plus any additional wage increases that ASEs in the unit received in the previous academic year).

2. Instructors of Record

During the term of this contract, the University shall maintain the status quo on its method for compensating Instructors of Record in the summer session.

3. Reader, Remedial Tutor, Tutor, Special Reader

The hourly rate for an appointment in these classifications shall at a minimum be the hourly rate in effect for the preceding academic year.

4. Proportionate Application

Salaries may be applied proportionately to other percent appointments and/or with the exception of UC Santa Barbara, to summer sessions of different lengths. A summer session appointment will be as defined in Section F. of this article.

B. APPLICABLE ARTICLES

The following articles apply to ASEs who are employed in the summer session: Recognition, Child Care, Classifications, Defined Contribution Plan, Definitions, Discipline and Dismissal, Emergency Layoff, Employment Files and Evaluations, Grievance and Arbitration, Health and Safety, Holidays, Labor Management Meetings, Leaves, Management and Academic Rights, No Strikes, Non-Discrimination in Employment, Parking and Transit, Travel, Severability, Training and Orientation, Union Access and Rights, Union Security, Waiver, Wages, Workspace and Instructional Support, and Duration.

When a position becomes available more than thirty (30) days in advance of the assignment the ASE shall receive written notification of the appointment no less than thirty (30) days before the start of the assignment. In cases in which a position becomes available less than thirty (30) days before the commencement of summer session, notification will be made as soon as possible. If the information is not known and available at the time the appointment notification is provided by the summer session hiring department, this information will be communicated at a later time by the University and if practical the information will be provided in writing.

D. APPOINTMENT SECURITY

If the University fails to notify an ASE prior to the commencement of the second meeting of the assigned section or class that a position offered and accepted is

Sixty (60) days before the commencement of each academic year, departments and hiring units shall post on the website available positions within the department for that year. Should new positions become available, they shall be posted within fourteen (14) days. The University may update or edit this information as it deems appropriate. The web site shall contain the following information.

- b. An employment non-discrimination statement.
- c. A general description of the duties performed by each of the classifications covered by the agreement.
- d. The "minimum qualifications" by classification as established by and at the sole discretion of the University.

2. An ASE who is considered the Instructor of Record during the summer session will be responsible for the summer session course.

Readers, Special Readers and Tutors will not be assigned to work more than eight (8) hours in any one day.
4. ASEs should initiate discussions with their supervisors as soon as they anticipate any workload related issues that would result in a violation of this article.
5. Disputes regarding workload arising under this article are not subject to Article 12, Grievance and Arbitration, of this agreement. In the event a dispute arises regarding workload, the procedures set forth in Article 32, Workload, shall apply.
