B. Employee Defined

The term "employee" as used in this Agreement shall refer to employees in the Classifications mentioned above as being within the bargaining unit covered by the Agreement.

ARTICLE 2. Duration

This Memorandum of Understanding shall become effective on August 10, 2016 and shall remain in effect until June 30, 2020. This Agreement shall automatically renew itself unless either of the parties requests in writing that negotiations for a successor Agreement commence. Notification of a request to commence negotiations for a successor Agreement shall be submitted by either party by April 30, 2020 or sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of this Agreement, whichever is earlier. While negotiations for a successor Agreement are continuing, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Limited Negotiations

If a law is enacted that affects the terms and conditions found in the contract, the University may choose to open the article(s) affected by the new law.

Notification

The University shall notify the Union when the UC Board of Regents makes changes that affect bargaining unit employees.

ARTICLE 3. Management Rights

The University retains solely and exclusively all rights, functions, powers, and authority to manage the operations of the University and to direct the work force, except where those rights, functions, powers, and authorities are expressly limited by provisions of this Agreement. It is recognized, merely by way of illustration and not by way of limitation, that such rights, functions, powers, and authorities which are solely and exclusively retained by the University include the right to: establish the University's mission, programs, objectives, activities, and priorities; plan, direct, and control the use of resources to achieve the University's mission, programs, objectives, activities, and priorities; develop, implement, and administer Affirmative Action programs; establish and administer procedures, rules, and regulations, and determine the methods and means by which operations are to be carried on; introduce new or improved methods, programs, equipment or facilities, or change or eliminate existing methods, programs, equipment, or facilities; determine the location or relocation, reorganization, or discontinuance of operations; determine where employees shall work; determine and modify job classifications and job descriptions; assign work, schedule days and hours of work including overtime or work beyond an employee's assigned shift; establish the size, composition, and qualifications of the work force; recruit, hire, assign, develop, promote, transfer, demote, or layoff employees in limited or probationary appointments; establish, modify, and enforce standards of performance, conduct, and safety for employees; maintain safety in its operations; and grant merit increases and increases for meritorious performance.

B. The above enumeration of management rights is not all inclusive and does not exclude other management rights not specified. Management retains the sole discretion to exercise or not to exercise rights retained by the University. The non exercise of a right by management shall not be construed to mean that any right is waived.

C. No action taken by the University with respect to the above-enumerated rights shall be subject to the Grievance or Arbitration procedures of this Agreement or collateral suit, unless the exercise thereof violates an express written provision of this Agreement.

D. While neither the decision nor the effects of the University’s exercise of the above-enumerated rights shall be subject to meeting and conferring during the term of this Agreement or any extension thereof, the University agrees to meet upon request with the Union to discuss the exercise of these rights so that the University may consider the Union’s information and views.

ARTICLE 4. Nondiscrimination in Employment

A. Nondiscrimination

It is the policy of the University not to engage in discrimination against or harassment of any person employed by or seeking employment with the University of California on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex\(^1\), physical or mental disability, medical condition (cancer-related or genetic characteristics), genetic information (including family medical history), HIV status, ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, citizenship, union affiliation, status as a covered veteran (special disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, Vietnam era veteran, or any other veteran who served on active duty during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized or, service in the uniformed services as defined by the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994).\(^2\) This Article is intended to be consistent with the provisions of applicable State and Federal law regarding non-discrimination and University Policies regarding non-discrimination, but does not incorporate those laws and policies. Instead of, or in addition to filing a grievance, an employee may report an allegation of discrimination or harassment to the Office of Equal Opportunity & Sexual Harassment/Title IX Compliance.

B. Sexual Harassment

Sexual Harassment- Instead of, or in addition to filing a grievance, an employee may report an allegation of sexual harassment to the campus’ Title IX Officer pursuant to the University of California’s Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment Policy. If an employee files a grievance that includes an allegation of sexual harassment, the University shall forward the allegations to the Title IX Officer for processing under the University policy and the grievance will be held in abeyance pending resolution or completion of the review under the policy. After completion of the process under the University policy, the employee may withdraw the grievance or request that the grievance continue to formal review pursuant to Article 23, Grievance Procedure. Nothing in this Article is intended to conflict with the University of California’s Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment Policy.

C. Grievance and Arbitration

Allegations of violations of only Article 4, Nondiscrimination, are grievable but not arbitrable. Allegations of a violation of Article 4, only when made in connection with a provision of another Article that is grievable, shall be eligible for appeal to the same degree that the provision of the other Article to which the grievance is connected is grievable and/or arbitrable.

\(^1\) Sex includes gender, pregnancy, childbirth and medical conditions related to pregnancy and childbirth, breastfeeding and medical conditions related to breastfeeding.

\(^2\) Service in the uniformed services includes membership, application for membership, performance of service, application for service, or obligation for service in the uniformed services.
ARTICLE 5. Probationary Period

A. Career Appointments
All new career employees shall serve a probationary period of six (6) calendar months at fifty per cent (50%) time or more without a break in service. Time on leave with or without pay is not qualifying service for the completion of the probationary period. Employees who are rehired following a break in service shall serve a new probationary period whether or not they previously completed a probationary period. Prior to the completion of the probationary period an employee may be released with written notice at the discretion of the University and without recourse to the Grievance or Arbitration procedures of this Agreement.

B. Limited Appointments
An employee who is required to serve a probationary period and who has worked in a limited appointment immediately preceding the career appointment, shall have up to 1,000 hours on pay status credited toward completion of the probationary period, provided that the credited time was served in the same position and with the same supervisor that the employee had immediately prior to the career appointment. Qualifying time on pay status includes regular time worked, compensatory time off, sick leave, extended sick leave, vacation, holidays, paid jury duty, administrative leave with pay, and military leave with pay. Qualifying time on pay status shall not include overtime, on-call, call back, and time in Casual/Restricted appointments.

C. Extension of Probationary Period
Under appropriate circumstances, e.g., change of supervisor or transfer to a different job during the probationary period, the probationary period may be extended at the discretion of the department head. Such an extension shall be for a specific period of time not to exceed three months. Probationary employees shall be notified in writing of the reasons for and duration of their probationary period extension. Actions taken by the University under the provisions of this Article are not subject to the Grievance or Arbitration procedures of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 6. Limited Appointment

A. A limited appointment is established at any percentage of time, fixed or variable, during with the appointee is expected to be on pay status for less than one thousand (1,000) hours in a rolling twelve (12) month period.

B. In the event that a limited appointment employee attains 1,000 hours of qualifying service within a rolling 12 month period, without a break in service of at least 120 consecutive days, the incumbent’s appointment shall convert to career status.

1. Qualifying service includes all time on pay status in one or more limited appointments at the campus. Qualifying time on pay status includes regular time worked, compensatory time off, sick leave, extended sick leave, vacation, holidays, paid jury duty, administrative leave with pay, and military leave with pay. Qualifying time on pay shall not include overtime, on-call, call back, and time in Casual/Restricted appointments. A casual/restricted position is reserved for a regular student of the University of California regardless of the percent of full-time or the duration of the appointment. A student is defined for these purposes as being enrolled and having paid their fees.

2. Such career conversion shall be effective the first day of the month following attainment of 1,000 hours of qualifying service.

3. Any break in service of 120 days or longer shall result in a new 12-month period for purposes of calculating the 1000 hour requirement.

C. Employees in limited appointments may have their appointment terminated or have their time reduced at the sole discretion of the University and without recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedures of this Agreement. Disputes arising from this Article may be reviewed under the Complaint Procedure of this Agreement.

D. An employee who is appointed to a limited appointment will be automatically terminated as of the last day of the appointment unless there is an earlier separation or a formal extension of the appointment.
E. Rehired Retirees working in limited appointment positions will be eligible to elect to waive future retirement accruals to the same extent that other rehired retirees in staff positions are eligible.

F. Employees are eligible for University benefits and membership in the University’s retirement plan in accordance with the plan’s eligibility requirements as described in the plan documents/contracts, applicable regulations and policy announcements and pursuant to Article 44 (Health & Welfare & Retirement Benefits).

ARTICLE 7. Hours of Work

A. Workweek and Schedule

1. Workweek. A workweek is a period of time consisting of seven consecutive days. The normal workweek is from 12:00 a.m. Sunday, to 11:59 p.m. the following Saturday. Alternate workweeks beginning and ending on days other than the above may be scheduled by the University.

2. Work Schedule. A work schedule is the normal hours of work for an employee within a workweek. The normal work schedule for full-time employees shall be eight hours per day excluding one hour for a meal on five consecutive days, and two consecutive days of rest. Whenever possible, management will provide 30 calendar days advance notice for change of work schedules.

B. Meal Periods
The standard work schedule for a full-time employee provides for a meal period of one hour. Meal periods are neither time worked nor time on pay status.

C. Rest Periods

1. An employee on a standard or alternate full-time work schedule may be granted two 15-minute rest periods, one to be taken in the work period prior to the meal period and one in the work period following the meal period. A part-time employee may be granted one 15-minute rest period for each work period of three continuous hours or more not to exceed two rest periods per day.

2. A rest period shall not be added to a meal period or taken at the beginning or end of a work period. Time not used for rest periods shall not be accumulated for use at a later time. Rest periods are scheduled by the supervisor.

D. Clean-Up Time
When the nature of an employee's job requires that he or she clean up at the completion of a work day, the supervisor may authorize 15 minutes as clean-up time.

E. Call-Back Time

1. Call Back refers only to those instances when an employee has physically left University premises and subsequently is ordered back to work without prior notice or in those instances when prior notice is given but the work begins at least two hours after the completion of the regular work schedule.

2. An employee who is called back shall receive credit for a minimum of four hours work time. The four hours, whether or not actually worked, shall be paid at the rate of one-and-one-half (1-1/2) times the regular rate of pay.

F. On-Call
On-Call is time during which an employee is not required to be at the work location or at the employee's residence but is required to be available for return to work. On-call assignments shall first be made on a voluntary basis. In the absence of sufficient volunteers, the University shall make on-call assignments and shall attempt to allocate on-call assignments equitably among employees in the same department. An employee placed on-call shall be compensated at twenty-five percent (25%) of his/her hourly rate for each hour on-call. An employee who is called to work shall receive credit for a minimum of four (4) hours of Overtime at the rate of one-and-one-half (1-1/2) times the regular hourly rate of pay, pursuant to Paragraph E.1 above.
G. Shift Differential

1. A shift differential of $1.50 per hour shall be paid for all hours (including overtime) of a shift when at least half of a shift of eight hours or longer is worked after 5 p.m. and before 8 a.m.

2. When an employee who usually works on an evening or night shift is temporarily assigned to a day shift for a period of four working days or less, the employee shall continue to receive the shift differential. A change in shift assignment initiated by the employee is not covered by this provision.

3. The shift differential shall be included in payments for all types of paid leave, provided that the employee would have been expected to work that shift or shifts were the employee not on paid leave.

H. Travel Time

Assigned travel during an employee's regular working hours on work days is time worked. The department head may designate other travel as time worked. The following provisions apply to travel, unless exceptions are authorized by the Chancellor. Travel time between home and the work place is not time worked. Travel that keeps an employee away from home overnight and that occurs outside the employee's normal working hours is not considered as hours of work. However, travel that does not keep an employee away from home overnight is considered as hours worked, as is travel that occurs during the hours an employee normally worked when the travel occurs on the employee's days off.

ARTICLE 8. Overtime

A. Definition

Overtime is defined as hours assigned and worked which exceed 8 hours in a work day or 40 hours in a work week.

B. Assignment of Overtime

It is the University's right to determine if overtime is required and which employees shall be assigned to work hours beyond the normal work schedule. If the University determines that overtime is required, employees assigned to work overtime shall be required to work and complete the overtime assignment. The University will take into account employee preferences when assigning overtime. The University will attempt to distribute overtime assignments evenly among employees in the skilled craft unit.

C. Compensation

In accordance with the following paragraphs, overtime shall be compensated at the appropriate rate either by pay or by compensatory time off, if the department offers compensatory time off for its skilled crafts employees. Employees shall be compensated for assigned overtime at the rate of one-and-one-half (1-1/2) times the employee's regular rate of pay for all time actually worked over 8 hours in one day or 40 hours in one work week. In addition, time spent off work on approved vacation, holidays, compensatory time off, jury duty, or witness leave, shall be considered time worked for the purpose of this Article only. Any hours on "On-Call" status, “Call Out,” or on sick leave shall not be considered time worked for purposes of this Article.

1. Compensatory Time

   a. The University may approve compensatory time off at the appropriate rate in lieu of overtime pay at the employee's request.

   b. An employee's request to take accrued compensatory time off shall be granted subject to the operational needs of the University in accordance with departmental needs.

   c. No more than one hundred-sixty (160) hours of overtime which require compensation at the time-and-one-half rate (that is, two hundred-forty (240) hours of compensatory time off) may be accumulated at any one time. An employee shall be paid for hours of premium overtime which exceed this limit.

   d. When compensatory time is taken or paid, it is paid at the employee's current rate of pay. However, upon separation from employment, compensatory time off accrued at the time-and-one-half rate shall be paid at the employee's current rate of pay or at the employee's average rate of pay for the last three years, whichever is higher.
e. Any accrued compensatory time off shall be paid to the employee when the employee leaves the bargaining unit, but remains employed by the University.

f. An employee may, within 1 month of his/her hire and thereafter on an annual basis, file a written indication of preference for either compensatory time off or payment for overtime worked. If the department does not offer compensatory time off or if an employee does not elect compensatory time off, overtime shall be paid. If no preference is indicated to the department at the time of such annual preference elections, the employee’s previous election, if any, shall continue.

D. There shall be no pyramiding or double payments for any hours worked.

E. Overtime Meals

When an employee is required to extend his/her regularly assigned shift more than three hours, and that period extends past the employee's regular meal time, he/she will be paid for the cost of that meal provided that no compensation for any meal will be made by the University without presentation by the employee of a receipt showing money spent. Maximum allowances are $7.50 for dinner and $7.25 for lunch. A person who has been called in to work overtime or works planned overtime is not entitled to be paid for a meal even though this overtime requires him/her to work past a regular meal time.

ARTICLE 9. Performance Evaluation

A. The performance of each non-probationary career employee shall be evaluated in writing annually in accordance with a process established by the University.

B. If an employee does not receive an annual evaluation of performance, he/she may request in writing that an evaluation be done. Upon request, an annual performance evaluation shall be provided within thirty (30) calendar days. If not provided, the employee shall be deemed to have performed satisfactorily.

C. A non-probationary career employee who receives a written performance evaluation with an overall rating of less–than-satisfactory may file a grievance pursuant to Article 23, Grievance Procedure. The remedy for such a grievance shall be limited to revision of the overall rating in question.

D. Disputes arising from this Article are excluded from the Arbitration procedures in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 10. Promotions & Temporary Assignments

A. When any permanent vacancy or new career job in the UCSB Skilled Craft unit is available, it shall be posted on the University’s online recruitment system for a period of two (2) weeks.

B. Employees desiring to be considered for a promotion or transfer opportunity in the UCSB Skilled Craft unit shall be considered if they meet the minimum qualifications for the position and complete the application process for the position. The candidate determined by management to be the best qualified for the vacant position shall be selected. Management will consider the objective of promotion or transfer of career employees in making its selection.

C. The University may temporarily assign an employee to perform all the functions in a higher level classification. If a temporary assignment is for more than 4 weeks (20 working days), then a stipend will be paid at the salary rate or within the salary range of the higher level position during the entire period of the temporary assignment. Stipends for temporary assignments are non-base-building. The maximum for a temporary assignment is one year. Extensions may be approved by Human Resources up to a maximum of two years.

D. The Union agrees to cooperate with the University's efforts to comply with legally mandated Affirmative Action obligations.
ARTICLE 11. Holidays

Employees are eligible for holiday pay in accordance with the nature of their appointments and their periods on pay status during the quadriweekly cycle immediately preceding the quadriweekly cycle in which the holiday occurs.

A. Eligibility for Holiday Pay

1. A full-time employee in a career position shall receive holiday pay if on pay status on the employee's last scheduled work day before the holiday and on the first scheduled work day following the holiday.

2. In addition, a full-time employee in a career position shall receive holiday pay in accordance with the following:

   a. A new and full-time employee shall receive pay for any holiday immediately preceding the employee's first day of work provided the holiday is the first working day(s) of a quadriweekly cycle.

   b. A continuing full-time employee who is on approved Leave Without Pay, Temporary Layoff, or Furlough for a period of not more than twenty (20) calendar days, including holidays, shall receive pay for any holiday occurring in the period.

   c. A terminating full-time employee shall receive pay for any holiday immediately following the employee's last day of work provided the holiday is the last working day(s) of the quadriweekly cycle.

3. No employee shall receive holiday pay for any holiday which is immediately preceded by or followed by an unauthorized absence or a suspension for disciplinary reasons.

4. A full-time employee in a limited position and any part-time employee shall receive holiday pay in accordance with the following table, except that holiday pay is not granted for a holiday that occurs before the first day of work for a new or rehired employee or after the last day of work for a terminating employee.

*Paid hours, excluding holiday hours.

When more than one holiday occurs in a pay period, multiply the Hours of Holiday Pay by the number of holidays for which the employee is eligible in the pay period to determine the total holiday hours with pay.

B. Holidays Observed

The following shall be granted as holidays:

- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Veteran's Day
- Thanksgiving
- Day after Thanksgiving
- Christmas Eve or the day after Christmas
- Christmas Day
New Year's Eve or the day after New Year's
New Year's Day
Martin Luther King's Birthday
Presidents Day
Cesar Chavez Holiday
Memorial Day

Holidays are considered to extend over a twenty-four (24-hour) period, but no employee may receive more than eight (8) hours of holiday pay for each holiday.

C. Holidays on Saturday or Sunday
When a holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday is observed. When a holiday falls on a Saturday, the preceding Friday is observed unless an alternative day is designated by the President of the University.

D. Compensation for Holiday Work
When an employee's work schedule requires him/her to work on an observed holiday, the employee shall be paid at the rate of one-and-one half (1-1/2) times the employee's regular rate of pay including any shift differential for all hours actually worked. In addition, the employee receives either holiday pay at the regular straight-time rate, including any shift differential, or compensatory time off.

E. Alternate Full-Time Work Schedule
An employee on an alternate full-time work schedule is entitled to the same number of holidays and the same number of paid holiday hours as are granted to regularly scheduled employees. An employee whose regular day off falls on a holiday observed by the University receives either another day off or compensating holiday pay.

F. Special or Religious Holidays
An employee may observe a special or religious holiday, provided work schedules permit and provided that the time off is charged to accrued vacation, accrued overtime, or is without pay.

ARTICLE 12. Sick Leave

A. Sick Leave is provided to continue the salary of eligible employees who would otherwise be on pay status but who are unable to work because of illness or disability. Sick Leave is also provided for medical appointments and, on a limited basis, in the event of death or illness of a family member.

B. Sick Leave accrues each quadri-weekly cycle based on the percent of time or number of hours on pay status during that quadri-weekly cycle. Employees must be on pay status at least one-half the working hours of a quadri-weekly cycle to accrue Sick Leave credit for that quadri-weekly cycle.

C. Factor Accrual System
An employee on pay status for at least one-half (1/2) of the working hours in a month or quadri-weekly cycle (i.e., two (2) consecutive bi-weekly pay periods) is eligible to accumulate sick leave credit for that period. An employee shall earn leave at the rate of .046154 hours per hour on pay status. The number of sick leave hours which may be accumulated is unlimited.

D. Eligibility
The following criteria shall apply:

1. An employee must be on pay status at least one-half the working hours of the quadri-weekly cycle to accrue Sick Leave for that quadri-weekly cycle.

2. Sick Leave shall accrue during leave with pay.

3. Sick Leave for each quadri-weekly cycle shall accrue at the end of the quadri-weekly cycle, except that an eligible terminating employee shall accrue proportionate Sick Leave through the last day on pay status.

4. Sick Leave shall not accrue for time on pay status in excess of forty hours in any work week.

5. There is no maximum on the amount of Sick Leave that may be accrued.
6. A full-time career employee who is on approved leave without pay accrues full Sick Leave credit for that quadri-weekly cycle provided the employee is on pay status at least one-half the working hours of the quadri-weekly cycle.

E. Use of Sick Leave
An employee shall be permitted to use accrued Sick Leave as provided below:

1. An employee shall not use Sick Leave prior to the time it is accrued.

2. An employee shall not use Sick Leave beyond a predetermined date of separation, including retirement or layoff, or any leave without pay.

3. When it is deemed to be justified, an employee may be required to submit satisfactory documentation of personal or family illness, disability, or death to the University in order to receive an excused absence from work and sick leave pay. The employee shall be given notice prior to returning to work that he/she will be required to provide such documentation.

4. An employee shall be permitted to use not more than thirty days of accrued Sick Leave in any calendar year when required to be in attendance or to provide care, because of the serious illness of the employee's spouse, domestic partner, parent, child (including the child of a domestic partner), sibling, or of any other related person who is residing in the employee's household.

5. An employee who becomes ill while on vacation shall be permitted to use accrued Sick Leave if that employee is under the care of a physician and submits a physician's statement but may not use accrued Sick Leave in the event of illness of a family member.

6. An employee shall be permitted to use not more than ten days of Sick Leave per occurrence when that employee's absence is required due to the death of the employee's spouse, domestic partner, parent, child (including the child of a domestic partner), sibling, grandparent, or grandchild. In-laws and step-relatives in the relationships listed also are covered. This provision also covers other related persons residing in the employee's household. In addition, an employee shall be permitted to use not more than five days of Sick Leave in any calendar year in the event an employee has a personal obligation with regard to funeral attendance or bereavement due to the death of any other person. The employee shall provide prior notice to the immediate supervisor as to the need for and likely length of any such absence.

7. An employee who has accrued Sick Leave but who is presently employed less than one-half time may use accrued Sick Leave, but not in excess of that employee's present scheduled hours of work for any day.

F. Transfer and Reinstatement of Sick Leave
An employee who is transferred, promoted, or demoted from one University position to another in which Sick Leave accrues shall have the Sick Leave transferred. An employee who is transferred, promoted, or demoted to a position in which Sick Leave does not accrue shall not have prior Sick Leave transferred. However, if the employee later transfers to a position in which Sick Leave accrues, the previously accrued Sick Leave shall be reinstated.

G. An employee who is reemployed in the Skilled Craft unit after a break in service of less than fifteen calendar days shall have all Sick Leave from prior service reinstated.

H. An employee who is reemployed in the Skilled Craft unit after a break in service of fifteen calendar days or more but less than six months shall have accrued Sick Leave from prior service not in excess of eighty hours reinstated.

I. State of California service is included as University service for the purpose of applying Paragraphs "G" and "H" above.

J. An employee who is reemployed under terms of the Layoff Article of this Agreement shall have accrued Sick Leave from prior service in the Skilled Craft unit reinstated.
ARTICLE 13. Vacation

A. Earning and Accrual of Vacation Leave
An eligible employee earns vacation credit from his/her date of appointment. Vacation credit for eligible employees is earned each quadri-weekly cycle based on the percent of time or number of hours on pay status for that quadri-weekly cycle at a rate determined by the length of qualifying service, according to the following rates:

<table>

* Full-time rate of 160 hours per quadriweekly cycle

B. Qualifying Service to Determine Rate of Vacation
Qualifying service to determine rate of vacation credit shall be calculated as follows:

1. A month of service at one-half time or more is a month of qualifying service.
2. Payment for service must have been made by the University or the State of California.
3. Time on military leave from the University or the State of California is included.
4. Service need not be continuous.

C. Eligibility to Earn Vacation
An employee appointed at fifty percent (50%) or more of full-time for a period of six quadri-weekly cycles or more is eligible to earn vacation from the date of the appointment. An employee who is not eligible to earn vacation by the nature of the appointment becomes eligible to earn vacation after six continuous quadri-weekly cycles on pay status at fifty percent (50%) or more and shall then be credited with vacation for the six-quadri-weekly cycle period.

D. Accrual of Vacation
An employee shall accrue full or proportionate vacation credit for a quadri-weekly cycle, in accordance with the Vacation Leave Tables shown in Section A. of this Article. The following criteria shall apply:

1. Vacation credit shall accrue during Leave With Pay.
2. Vacation credit for each quadri-weekly cycle shall accrue at the end of the quadri-weekly cycle, except that an eligible separating employee accrues proportionate vacation through the last day on pay status.
3. Vacation credit shall not accrue for time on pay status in excess of the full-time working hours of the quadri-weekly cycle.

E. Scheduling of Vacation
Vacation leaves shall be approved and scheduled by the Department to meet the operational requirements of the University, and in accordance with the following provisions;

1. Vacation time shall not be used prior to the time it is accrued, except as provided in Article 16, Leaves of Absence of this Agreement.
2. Absence for illness, disability, or personal reasons, for example, for special or religious holidays, may be charged to vacation with prior approval of the supervisor.
3. Upon written request an employee shall be granted vacation before the employee's accrued credit reaches the maximum which the employee can accumulate. An employee shall be notified 60 calendar days and 30 calendar days before reaching the maximum vacation credit which the employee can accumulate.
4. An employee shall not be paid vacation for the same period that the employee is working and on pay status in the employee's present position, or any other position paid by University's funds.

5. Vacation schedules for the entire calendar year shall be established from employee requests made during January. If conflicts arising in the dates of requested vacations cannot be resolved informally by the Department and employees involved, then seniority in the Skilled Craft unit shall establish the priority of the vacation scheduling for those employees. Department management shall respond in writing to such vacation requests made in January not later than March 1 of each calendar year. Except as provided in E.8 below, vacation requests made during January, but not responded to by March 1, are considered approved by the department.

6. Exceptions to vacation schedules established from January requests may be granted for an employee who makes long-term vacation plans.

7. Vacation requests not submitted during January will be considered on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests must be submitted in writing. Department management shall respond to such vacation requests within 30 calendar days. Request not responded to in 30 days are considered approved by the department.

8. In an emergency, the Department may reschedule vacations of employees in the Skilled Craft unit.

9. Unscheduled or emergency vacation may be granted at the Department's discretion.

F. Transfer of Vacation
   An employee who is transferred, promoted, or demoted from one University position to another University position or funding source in which the employee will accrue vacation credit shall have vacation credit transferred.

G. An employee who is transferred, promoted, or demoted to another University position in which the employee will not be eligible to accrue vacation credit shall be paid for accrued vacation.

H. Terminal Vacation Pay
   An eligible employee who separates from University employment or who is granted extended Military Leave shall be paid for vacation credit accrued through the employee's last day of work. The effective date of separation shall be the last day of work, except that an employee who is retiring may use vacation up to the effective date of retirement.

ARTICLE 14. Work-Incurred Injury or Illness

A. General
   This policy defines the application of accrued sick leave and vacation leave for employees who are unable to work due to a work-incurred injury or illness compensable under the California Workers’ Compensation Act and provides extended sick leave for such employees when accrued sick leave is exhausted and when employees are still unable to work because of such injury or illness.

B. Use of Accrued Sick Leave and Vacation
   In order to continue full salary, accrued sick and vacation leave may be used to supplement temporary disability payments received under the California Workers’ Compensation Act.

C. Extended Sick Leave
   For any one injury or illness, if the employee has exhausted accrued sick leave, remains disabled, and continues to receive temporary disability payments, the employee shall receive extended sick leave payments in an amount equal to the difference between the temporary disability payments and 80 percent of the employee’s basic salary plus any shift differential which the employee would have received. If such an employee returns to part-time University duties, the earnings plus any Workers’ Compensation payments, if less than 80 percent of basic salary plus shift differential, shall be supplemented to 80 percent by extended sick leave payments, provided the employee continues to be medically authorized for Workers’ Compensation temporary disability. Total extended sick leave payments shall not exceed twenty-six weeks for any one injury or illness.

An eligible employee who does not have sufficient accrued sick leave to cover the three calendar days’ waiting period for receiving Workers’ Compensation payments shall receive extended sick leave payment to cover any part of the waiting period not covered by sick leave. Payment shall be made only after determination that the injury or illness is compensable under Workers’ Compensation.
This extended sick leave benefit shall not apply to safety members who qualify for leave with full salary for a work-incurred disability under State law. Extended sick leave constitutes an advance against permanent disability payments. After extended sick leave has been exhausted an employee may request a leave without pay.

D. Leave Without Pay
An employee on leave without pay and receiving temporary disability payments accrues sick leave and vacation on the same basis as if regularly employed, but such accrual is credited to the employee only upon return to work. If an employee separates without returning to work, no payment shall be made for such vacation credit.

E. Family and Medical Leave
An employee who is receiving supplemental leave and/or extended sick leave as described in Sections A and B shall have that time counted against the 12-workweek entitlement to family and medical leave, provided that the employee is entitled to leave pursuant to Article 16.C, Family and Medical Leave.

ARTICLE 15. Military Leave

A. General
An employee shall be granted military leave as specified below, provided that the employee gives advance verbal or written notice of the leave except when such notice is precluded by military necessity, impossibility, or unreasonableness. If applicable state or federal law requires the University to offer any leave in a manner that would be more generous to employees than is currently provided in this Article, the University will comply with the law. In the granting of such leave, the University may require verification of an employee’s military orders for leaves of thirty (30) or more days.

B. Types of Military Leave
Military leave consists of:

1. Reserve training leave for inactive duty, such as weekly or monthly meetings or weekend drills.

2. Temporary military leave for active-duty training when any employee who, as a member of a reserve component of the United Stated Armed Forces, is ordered to full-time active military duty for training for a period not to exceed 180 calendar days, including time spent traveling to and from such duty.

3. Extended military leave when an employee enlists or is ordered into active-duty in the United Stated Armed Forces or a reserve component or who is ordered into active Federal military duty as a member of the National Guard or Naval Militia. Such leave shall be granted for active-duty service of any length or for active-duty training in excess of 180 days. An employee shall be granted extended military leave for the initial period of enlistment, service, or tour of duty for a period not to exceed 5 years. In addition, leave shall be granted for a period up to 6 months from the date of release from duty if the employee requests such extension.

4. Emergency National Guard leave when an employee who as a member of the National Guard is called to active duty by proclamation of the Governor of the State of California during a state of emergency. An employee who as a member of the National Guard is called to active federal military duty at the request of the President of the United States is not eligible for emergency National Guard leave, but shall be granted extended military leave.

5. Physical examination leave when an employee is required to take a pre-induction or pre-enlistment physical examination to fulfill a commitment under a Selective Service or comparable law, or during a period of war or comparable national emergency.

C. Pay for Leave

1. An employee granted reserve training leave for inactive duty, temporary military leave for active-duty training, or extended military leave is entitled to receive the employee’s regular University pay for the first 30 calendar days of such leave in any one fiscal year (July 1st through June 30th), provided that the employee has completed 12 months of continuous University service immediately prior to the granting of the leave (all prior full-time military service shall be included in calculating this University service requirement) and provided that the aggregate of payments for reserve training for inactive duty, temporary military leave, extended military leave, and military leave for physical examination do not exceed 30 calendar days’ in any one fiscal year.

2. An employee granted physical examination leave is entitled to receive the employee’s regular University pay provided that the aggregate of payments for temporary military leave, reserve training for inactive duty, extended military leave, and military leave for physical examination do not exceed 30 calendar days pay in any one fiscal year. Time off for other physical examinations in connection with military service may be charged to accrued sick leave, accrued vacation leave, or accrued compensatory time off, or shall be without pay.

3. An employee granted military leave for emergency National Guard duty is entitled to receive the employee’s regular University pay for a period not to exceed 30 calendar days in any one fiscal year. An employee is eligible for pay regardless of the length of University service, and such pay is in addition to any University payment for temporary military leave for reserve training for inactive duty, active-duty training, extended military leave, and military leave for physical examinations.

4. An employee who is not eligible for military leave with pay may have such absence charged to accrued vacation or compensatory time off, or the military leave may be without pay.

5. An eligible part-time employee shall receive pay in proportion to the average percent of full-time worked during the three (3) completed quadriweekly pay cycles immediately preceding the leave.

D. Reinstatement
Following release from military service, an employee shall have such right to return, and only such right, as may be required by State and Federal law in effect at the time the employee applies for reinstatement.

E. Effect on Benefits
An employee granted military leave shall receive benefits as provided below:

1. An employee granted military leave with pay shall receive all benefits related to employment that are granted when an employee is on pay status.

2. An employee granted military leave without pay shall receive:
   a. retirement benefits and service credit in accord with the provisions of the applicable retirement system;
   b. health plan coverage at the employee’s request and expense for a limited period of time as describe in the University Group Insurance Regulations;
   c. other length-of-service credits related to employment that would have been granted had the employee not been absent, provided that the employee returns to University service at the conclusion of the leave in accordance with applicable Federal and State laws;
   d. vacation and sick leave accruals and holiday pay only in accordance with those Articles.

ARTICLE 16. Leaves of Absence

A. General Provisions
In accordance with the provisions of this Article, an employee may be granted a Leave of Absence, with or without pay. If applicable state or federal law requires the University to offer any leave in a manner that would be more generous to employees than is currently provided in this Article, the University will comply with the law.

- Medical Leaves, with or without pay, include: Family Medical Leave, which includes both Family Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA) and the California Family Rights Act of 1995; Supplemental Family and Medical Leave; Pregnancy Disability Leave; Parental Bonding Leave; Military Caregiver Leave; Qualifying Exigency Leave; Military Spouse/Domestic Partner Leave; and Work-Incurred Injury and Illness Leave.

- Administrative Leaves, with or without pay, include Personal Leave, Jury and Witness Duty, University Proceedings, Voting Privileges, Emergencies and Other Administrative Leaves.

1. Substitution of Paid Leave Unless expressly prohibited under the specific applicable leave(s) policy, employees may elect to substitute accrued vacation, sick leave and/or compensatory time off for leave without pay. In certain circumstances, employees may be required to exhaust paid leave before taking unpaid leave. The substitution of paid leave for unpaid leave does not extend the total duration of the leave to which an employee is entitled. For example, using five (5) days of accrued sick leave during a Family and Medical Leave absence does not extend the duration of the leave beyond the maximum entitlement by another five (5) days.

2. Advance Notice Require For leaves other than Family and Medical Leave, an employee must inform his/her supervisor as far in advance as possible of the need to take time off from work for any reason, including the expected length of the leave. If the need to take leave is unforeseen an employee must inform his/her supervisor as soon as practicable. The employee may be required to provide evidence of the treatment, circumstance, or event that is the basis for the absence from work, consistent with the provisions applicable to the particular type of leave being taken.

3. Evidence Supporting the Need for Leave An employee requesting leave, whether paid or unpaid, should be prepared to provide written documentation supporting the need for leave (e.g., jury summons, subpoena) consistent with the applicable leave provision. Leaves for medical reasons may require written confirmation from a health care provider.

4. Recertification and Periodic Reports The University may require an employee who is on a leave of absence due to his/her own or a family member’s medical condition to provide recertification of that condition. The University also may request periodic reports during an employee’s leave regarding his/her status and intent to return to work.

5. Return to Work An employee is expected to return to work no later than the next regularly scheduled workday after the expiration of an approved leave. If an extension is desired, the employee should request this in writing from his/her supervisor in advance of the expected date of return.

   a. An employee who unexpectedly cannot return to work on the next regularly scheduled workday following the expiration of the approved leave of absence must notify his/her supervisor as soon as possible, but preferably no later than an hour before the employee’s scheduled start time to explain the reason for the absence.

   b. Failure to return to work after an approved leave of absence without supervisory approval for the extension of leave is considered an unauthorized absence. An employee who is returning from a leave for his/her own medical condition may be required to provide written verification of his/her ability to return to work, consistent with the applicable leave provision. Such verification must include any applicable work restrictions (and their expected duration), as identified by the employee’s health care provider.

   c. Leaves of absence, whether paid or unpaid, may not extend beyond a predetermined separation date.

6. Benefits Coverage During Leave Generally, an employee granted a leave with pay will receive all benefits related to employment that are granted when an employee is on pay status. Special limitations or requirements that apply to certain types of leaves are addressed in the provisions specific to those leaves.

   a. An employee on Family and Medical Leave (FML) will continue to have coverage under the University’s health plans (medical, dental, and optical) as if on pay status as follows:

      i. When the employee is on a FML leave that runs concurrently under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and the California Family Rights Act (CFRA): Continued coverage for up to twelve (12) workweeks in a calendar year.
ii. When the employee is on a Military Caregiver Leave under the FMLA: Continued coverage for up to twenty-six (26) workweeks in a single twelve month period. For purposes of Military Caregiver Leave, the single twelve month period is the period beginning on the first day the employee takes the leave and ending twelve (12) months after that date.

iii. When the employee is on a Qualifying Exigency Leave under the FMLA: Continued coverage for up to twelve workweeks in a calendar year.

iv. When the employee is on a Pregnancy Disability Leave under the California Pregnancy Leave Law, regardless of whether any of the leave runs concurrently with the FMLA: Continued coverage for up to four (4) months in a twelve month period. If any of the Pregnancy Disability Leave runs concurrently under the FMLA, the continued coverage provided for that portion of the leave will count towards the employee’s FMLA entitlement for up to twelve (12) workweeks of such coverage in a calendar year.

v. When the employee is on an FML leave under the CFRA that does not run concurrently under the FMLA (e.g., Parental Bonding Leave taken after the employee has exhausted his/her entitlement under the FMLA): Continued coverage for up to twelve (12) workweeks in a calendar year.

b. An employee on any other approved unpaid leave will receive health plan and retirement plan coverage in accordance with the group insurance and retirement system regulations.

c. To continue health coverage during an approved leave of absence, an employee must continue to make any contributions that he/she made before taking leave. For any paid portion of the leave, employee contributions will continue to be deducted from the employee’s paycheck. Failure of the employee to pay his/her share of the health insurance premium may result in loss of coverage. If the employee fails to return to work other than for reasons beyond his/her control (such as being physically unable to return to work), the University may elect to recover from the employee the portion of premiums it paid on the employee’s behalf.

B. Family and Medical Leave – General Provisions

To be eligible for Family and Medical Leave, an employee must have: been employed by the University for at least a total of 12 months; and worked at least 1,250 hours in the 12 months immediately preceding the start of the leave. (For employees granted military leave, all hours that would have been worked had the employee not been ordered to military duty are included for the purpose of calculating the 1,250 hours of actual work.)

1. An eligible employee may take unpaid Family and Medical Leave of up to a total of twelve (12) workweeks in a calendar year (or, for Military Caregiver Leaves, for a period of up to twenty-six (26) workweeks in a single 12-month period) under certain conditions, as described in the applicable sections below. University closures of one week or longer that occur during an employee’s Family and Medical Leave are not counted toward the 12-workweek limit (or, for Military Caregiver Leave, the 26-workweek limit).

2. Any leave taken by an eligible employee that qualifies as Family and Medical Leave will be designated as such and will be counted against the employee’s leave entitlement whether the leave is paid or unpaid. Such deductions will be made in increments that correspond to the amount of leave time actually taken by the employee (which could be weeks, days, hours, and/or partial hours).

3. An employee who takes less than twelve (12) workweeks of Family and Medical Leave does not need to have worked 1,250 hours in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding any subsequent Family and Medical leave taken for the same qualifying reason in the same calendar year as the initial qualifying leave.

4. An employee may qualify for Family and Medical Leave under the California Family Rights Act (CFRA) for any covered reason (e.g., parental bonding) other than disability caused by pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions even if the employee’s leave entitlement under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) has been exhausted.

5. Advance Notice. An employee should inform his/her supervisor of the need for a Family and Medical Leave at least thirty (30) days in advance of the anticipated start date of the leave if the need for leave is foreseeable. If the need for leave is not foreseeable, the employee should give notice to his/her supervisor as soon as practicable. Failure to comply with this notice requirement may result in postponement of leave.
The employee should also provide notice to his/her supervisor as soon as practicable if the period(s) for which the employee needs Family and Medical Leave change.

6. Documentation and Certification. The University may require that the employee provide a complete and sufficient certification from a health care provider if the employee is requesting a Family Medical Leave (a) due to the employee’s own serious health condition, (b) due to the employee’s pregnancy disability, (c) to care for a family member with a serious health condition, or (d) as Military Caregiver Leave. If the employee is taking Qualifying Exigency Leave, the University may require that the employee provide the certification pertaining to that form of Family and Medical Leave. The University will provide the appropriate certification form to the employee based on the type of Family and Medical Leave the employee is requesting. If the employee is seeking to take Family and Medical Leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition or as Parental Bonding Leave, the University may require that the employee provide a Declaration of Family Relationship for Family and Medical Leave.

7. Substitution of Paid Leave Benefits for Unpaid Family and Medical Leave. An employee may elect to substitute accrued vacation, sick leave, and/or compensatory time off for leave without pay in accordance with the provisions governing each type of Family and Medical Leave. If an employee wishes to take unpaid Family and Medical Leave and the employee’s vacation accrual balance is at the maximum, the employee will be required to use at least 10 percent of accrued vacation leave before taking unpaid Family and Medical Leave. The foregoing requirement does not apply if the employee elects to take unpaid Pregnancy Disability Leave instead of using accrued vacation. The substitution of paid leave for Family and Medical Leave does not extend the total duration of the leave to which an employee is entitled.

8. Reinstatement. Reinstatement will be to the same position or, at the Department’s discretion, to an equivalent position with equivalent benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment, provided that the employee returns to work immediately following the Family and Medical Leave. If the employee would have been laid off or terminated if the employee had actually been working during the leave period, the employee will be afforded the same considerations afforded to other employees who are laid off or terminated pursuant to the provisions of this collective bargaining agreement.

C. Family and Medical Leave – Due to an Employee’s Own Serious Health Condition

Eligible employees are entitled to Family and Medical Leave when they are unable to perform their job due to their own serious health condition.

1. Definition of Serious Health Condition. For these purposes, a serious health condition means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves one of the following:

   a. Inpatient Care—Inpatient care (i.e. an overnight stay) in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility, including any period of incapacity or subsequent treatment in connection with or consequent to such inpatient care.

   b. Incacity of More Than Three (3) Consecutive Days plus Continuing Treatment—A period of incapacity of more than three (3) consecutive calendar days (including any subsequent treatment or period of incapacity relating to the same condition), that also involves (a) treatment two or more times by a health care provider, by a nurse or physician’s assistant under direct supervision of a health care provider, or by a provider of health care services (e.g. physical therapist) under orders of, or on referral by, a health care provider; or (b) treatment by a health care provider on at least one occasion which results in a regimen of continuing treatment under the supervision of the health care provider (e.g. a course of prescription medication, or therapy requiring special equipment, to resolve or alleviate the health condition). This does not include taking over-the-counter medications or activities that can be initiated without a visit to a health care provider (e.g. bed rest, exercise, drinking fluids).

   c. Pregnancy (only covered under FMLA)—A period of incapacity due to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions. This includes severe morning sickness and prenatal care.

   d. Chronic Conditions Requiring Treatment—A chronic condition which: (a) requires periodic visits for treatment by a health care provider, or by a nurse or physician’s assistant under direct supervision of a health care provider, (b) continues over an extended period of time (including recurring episodes of a single underlying condition); and (c) may cause episodic rather than a continuing period of incapacity (e.g. asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, etc.).

e. Permanent/Long-Term Conditions Requiring Supervision—A period of incapacity that is permanent or long term due to a condition for which treatment may not be effective. The employee or family member must be under the continuing supervision of, but need not be receiving active treatment by, a health care provider. Examples include Alzheimer’s, a severe stroke, or the terminal stages of disease.

f. Multiple Treatment (Non-Chronic Conditions)—Any period of absence to receive multiple treatments (including any period of recovery therapy from) by a health care provider, or by a provider of health care services under orders of, or on referral by, a health care provider, either for restorative surgery after an accident or other injury, or for a condition that would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three (3) consecutive calendar days in the absence of medical intervention or treatment, such as cancer (chemotherapy, radiation, etc.) severe arthritis (physical therapy), or kidney disease (dialysis).

2. Reduced Schedule or Intermittent Leave. When medically necessary for the employee’s own serious health condition, an employee may take Family and Medical Leave intermittently or on a reduced schedule basis. If the employee’s need for intermittent or reduced schedule leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the employee should consult with his/her supervisor and make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as to minimize the disruption to the University’s operations. In addition, if the need for intermittent or reduced schedule leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the University may require the employee to transfer temporarily (during the period when intermittent or reduced schedule leave is required) to an alternative position for which the employee is qualified and that better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the employee’s regular position.

3. Substitution of Paid Leave Benefits for FML Due to an Employee’s Own Serious Health Condition. An employee may elect to substitute accrued vacation, sick leave, and/or compensatory time off for leave without pay. Supplemental and/or extended sick leave may be used if the employee is receiving temporary disability payments under the Workers’ Compensation Act, subject to Section K, below.

D. Family and Medical Leave – To Care for a Family Member with a Serious Health Condition

An eligible employee is entitled to Family and Medical Leave when the employee’s assistance is required to care for a spouse, domestic partner, child, or parent with a serious health condition as defined in Section F.1, above. The employee may be required to provide written confirmation of a family relationship for leaves requested for the purpose of caring for a seriously ill spouse, domestic partner, child, or parent.

1. Reduced Schedule or Intermittent Leave. When medically necessary to care for a family member with a serious health condition, an employee may take Family and Medical Leave intermittently or on a reduced schedule basis. If the employee’s need for intermittent or reduced schedule leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the employee should consult with his/her supervisor and make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as to minimize the disruption to the University’s operations. In addition, if the need for intermittent or reduced schedule leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the University may require the employee to transfer temporarily (during the period when intermittent or reduced schedule leave is required) to an alternative position for which the employee is qualified and that better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the employee’s regular position.

2. Substitution of Paid Leave Benefits for Family Medical Leave to Care for a Family Member with a Serious Health Condition. An employee may elect to substitute accrued vacation, compensatory time off, and/or up to twelve (12) workweeks of accrued sick leave for unpaid leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition. If an employee wishes to take unpaid leave to care for a family member with a serious health condition and the employee’s vacation accrual balance is at the maximum, the employee will be required to use at least 10 percent of accrued vacation prior to taking unpaid Family and Medical Leave.

E. Supplemental Family and Medical Leave

A regular status employee who has exhausted all Family and Medical Leave is eligible for Supplemental Family and Medical Leave for up to an additional twelve (12) workweeks or until the end of the calendar year, whichever is less, if the need for a Family and Medical Leave that is in progress continues beyond twelve (12) workweeks.
However, the aggregate absence from work for Pregnancy Disability Leave, Family and Medical Leave, and Supplemental Family and Medical Leave may not exceed seven (7) months during the calendar year, except as may be required by law.

1. For employees on Supplemental Family and Medical leave, health plan coverage (medical, dental, and optical) will continue in accordance with each plan’s requirements.

2. An employee may elect to substitute accrued vacation, sick leave, and/or compensatory time off for leave without pay if the underlying Family and Medical Leave is due to the employee’s own pregnancy disability or other serious health condition. An employee may elect to substitute accrued vacation, compensatory time off, and/or up to thirty (30) days of sick leave in a calendar year if the underlying Family and Medical Leave is to care for a family member with a serious health condition, parental bonding leave, or Military Caregiver Leave as provided for under applicable provisions of the policy.

3. Reinstatement. Reinstatement shall be to the same or, at the department’s discretion, a similar position in the same department provided that the employee returns to work immediately following termination of the leave. If the employee would have been laid off or terminated had the employee actually been working during the leave period, the employee shall be afforded the same considerations afforded other employees who are laid off or terminated pursuant to the provisions of Article 19, Layoff and Reduction in Time, Article 18, Discipline & Dismissal, and Article 6, Limited Appointment.

F. Leave Due to Pregnancy, Childbirth or Related Medical Condition (Pregnancy Disability Leave)

Pregnancy Disability Leave may consist of leave with or without pay and/or paid leave such as accrued sick leave, vacation leave, and compensatory time off. Pregnancy Disability Leave may also be used for prenatal care.

1. If an employee on an approved Pregnancy Disability Leave is eligible for Family and Medical Leave, up to 12 workweeks of Pregnancy Disability Leave will run concurrently with the employee’s Family and Medical Leave entitlement under federal law. Upon concluding a Pregnancy Disability Leave, an employee may be eligible for up to 12 workweeks of Family and Medical Leave under the California Family Rights Act (CFRA) for any covered reason except pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions.

2. Reduced Schedule or Intermittent Leave When medically necessary, an employee may take Pregnancy Disability Leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis. The University may require an employee who is taking such leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis to temporarily transfer to an alternative position if the alternative position better accommodates the required work schedule than the employee’s own position. Such a temporary transfer shall not be counted toward an employee’s entitlement to up to four (4) months of Pregnancy Disability Leave. At the conclusion of the Pregnancy Disability Leave (or earlier, at the University’s option), the employee shall be returned to her original position in accordance with the Reinstatement provisions below.

3. Modification of Job Duties or Temporary Transfer As an alternative to or in addition to Pregnancy Disability Leave, the University will temporarily modify the job duties of a pregnant employee or transfer the employee to a less strenuous or hazardous position, if requested by the employee and medically advisable according to the employee’s health care provider, provided that the temporary transfer or modification of duties can be reasonably accommodated by the University. Such a temporary modification of duties or transfer will not be counted toward an employee’s entitlement to up to four (4) months of Pregnancy Disability Leave. At the conclusion of the Pregnancy Disability Leave (or earlier upon the employee’s request if that request is consistent with the advice of the employee’s health care provider), the employee will be returned to her original position and/or duties in accordance with the Reinstatement provisions below.

4. Reinstatement Reinstatement will be to the same position the employee had prior to the Pregnancy Disability Leave, provided that the employee returns to work within four (4) months and immediately following the Pregnancy Disability Leave. If the employee would have been laid off or terminated if the employee had actually been working during the leave period, reinstatement will be to a comparable position at the same location. If a comparable position at the same location is not available, the employee will be afforded the same considerations afforded other employees who are laid off or terminated pursuant to the provisions of

1. Reduced Schedule or Intermittent Leave. The basic minimum duration of any Parental Bonding Leave is two (2) weeks. Otherwise, the employee may only take Parental Bonding leave for a period of less than two (2) weeks or intermittently or on a reduced schedule at the discretion of the employee’s supervisor and then only according to an agreed schedule. Supervisors must assess any such request in conjunction with existing University needs.

2. Substitution of Paid Leave Benefits for Parental Bonding Leave. Employees may elect to substitute accrued vacation, compensatory time off, and/or up to thirty (30) days of accrued sick leave for any unpaid Parental Bonding Leave. If an employee wishes to take unpaid Parental Bonding Leave and the employee’s vacation accrual balance is at the maximum, the employee will be required to use at least 10 percent of accrued vacation before taking unpaid Family and Medical Leave/Parental Bonding Leave.

H. Family and Medical Leave – Military Caregiver Leave
An eligible employee may take Military Caregiver Leave to care for a family member or next of kin who is a covered service member undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy for a serious injury or illness.

1. Definition of Terms
   a. Covered service member: For purposes of Family and Medical Leave – Military Caregiver Leave, a “covered service member” is: a current member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserves) who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; is otherwise in outpatient status; or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list; or
   b. Covered veteran: For purposes of Family and Medical Leave – Military Caregiver Leave, a “covered veteran” is an individual who was a member of the Armed Forces (including the National Guard or Reserves), and who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes Family Medical Leave to care for the covered veteran.
   c. Next of kin: The “next of kin” is either (i) the nearest blood relative of the covered service member (other than the covered service member's spouse, domestic partner, parent, son or daughter) or (ii) the person who the covered service member has designated in writing as his/her nearest blood relative for purposes of Military Caregiver Leave.
   d. Parent of a covered military member: A “parent of a covered military member” is a covered military member’s biological, adopted, or foster parent or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to the covered military member when the covered military member was a child. The definition does not include parents “in-law.”
   e. Single 12-month leave period: A “single 12-month leave period” means the period beginning on the first day the employee takes leave to care for the covered service member and ending 12 months after that date.
   f. Son or daughter of a covered service member: A son or daughter of a covered military member is of any age and is a biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild, or legal ward of a covered service member or someone for whom the covered service member stood in loco parentis when that person was a child.

4. If an eligible employee does not use all of his/her 26 workweeks of leave entitlement to care for a covered service member during this single 12-month leave period, the remaining part of the 26 workweeks entitlement to care for the covered service member for that serious injury or illness is forfeited.

5. Reduced Schedule or Intermittent Leave This leave may be taken on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis. If the employee’s need for intermittent or reduced schedule leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the employee should consult with his/her supervisor and make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as to minimize the disruption to the University’s operations. In addition, if the need for intermittent or reduced schedule leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the University may require the employee to transfer temporarily (during the period when intermittent or reduced schedule leave is required) to an alternative position for which the employee is qualified and that better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the employee’s regular position.

6. Documentation and Certification. Employees may be required to provide a certification completed by an authorized health care provider of the covered service member that provides information necessary to establish entitlement to Military Caregiver Leave. In addition, employees may be required to provide certain information (or have the covered service member provide information) establishing that the service member is a covered service member for purposes of Military Caregiver Leave, his/her relationship with the employee, and an estimate of the leave needed to provide the care.

ARTICLE 19. Layoff and Reduction in Time

This Article covers Indefinite Separation and Reduction in Time, Temporary Layoff and Reduction in Time, and Transfer of an employee to a limited appointment position resulting from the elimination of a career position.

A. Responsibility

1. The department head shall determine when Indefinite or Temporary Layoffs are necessary due to a lack of work or lack of funds. The department head shall minimize Indefinite Layoffs from career positions by first reviewing the necessity for existing limited appointment positions within the department. When a vacancy exists within the unit is an active career position in other classes in the department which are at the same salary level (as determined by the salary range maximum) as the employee's current position, the department head shall reassign an employee scheduled for Indefinite Layoff to that position, provided the employee is qualified to perform the duties of that position.

2. The department head has the authority to lay off an employee for an indefinite period after reviewing the proposed action with the Personnel Manager and Affirmative Action Coordinator/Officer.

3. Personnel Manager
   The Personnel Manager shall assist the department head and make a reasonable effort to assure that an employee scheduled for Indefinite Layoff from a career position has the opportunity to be considered for transfer to another position for which the employee is qualified.

B. Temporary Layoff and Temporary Reduction in Time

1. Whenever a Layoff or Reduction in Time from a career position is temporary for a specified period of less than four (4) calendar months, the provisions of Section "A.3.," above, and Sections "C.1.," through "D.9.," below shall not apply.

2. An employee shall be given written notice of the effective date and the ending date of a Temporary Layoff or Reduction in Time. Whenever possible, the Notice shall be given at least 30 calendar days prior to the effective date.

3. If an Indefinite Layoff or Indefinite Reduction in Time should occur during a Temporary Layoff or Temporary Reduction in Time, the procedures for Indefinite Layoff or Indefinite Reduction in Time shall be applied.

C. Indefinite Layoff and Indefinite Reduction in Time

1. Indefinite Layoff and Reduction in Time is effected by department and by class (title code). The order of Indefinite Layoff and Reduction in Time of Employees in the same class within a department shall be in inverse order of seniority, except that the department head may retain employees irrespective of seniority who possess special skills, knowledge, or abilities which are not possessed by other employees in the same class. All such exceptions shall be documented and shall be reviewed by the Personnel Manager.

2. Seniority
   Seniority shall be calculated by full-time equivalent months (or hours) of University service. Employment prior to a break in service shall not counted. A break in service is any separation from employment status. In addition, a break in service occurs, effective the last day on pay status, whether or not a separation form is submitted, when an employee is off pay status for four (4) complete, consecutive calendar months without an approved Leave Without Pay, Furlough, or Temporary Layoff. A return to pay status from an approved Leave Without Pay, Furlough, Temporary Layoff, during a period of Right to Recall and Preference for Reemployment, or on the next working day following a separation is not a break in service. When employees have the same number of full-time equivalent months (or hours), the employee with the most recent date of appointment shall be laid off first.

3. Notice
   An employee will receive at least thirty (30) calendar days' advance written notice prior to Indefinite Layoff or Reduction in Time. If less than thirty (30) calendar days' notice is granted, the employee shall receive pay in lieu of notice for each additional day the employee would have been on pay status had the employee been given thirty (30) calendar days' notice. 1. Right to Recall to Layoff Department
   A regular status employee who is separated or whose time is reduced because of an Indefinite Layoff shall be recalled in order of seniority into any active and vacant career position for which the employee is qualified when the position is in the same class, or craft if applicable, and department and at the same or lesser percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff. Right to Recall is not extended to an employee who has not attained regular status.

2. Preference for Reemployment or Transfer in Layoff Department or Other Departments
   A regular status employee who is separated or whose time is reduced because of Indefinite Layoff or who has received written Notice of Indefinite Layoff or Reduction in Time within the two (2) calendar months prior to the Layoff shall be granted preference within the UCSB Skilled Crafts unit for reemployment or transfer to any active or vacant career position for which the employee is qualified, when the position is:

   a. at the same campus,
   b. at the same salary level or lower (as determined by the salary range maximum), and
   c. at the same or lesser percentage of time as the position held by the employee at the time of layoff.

   Preference for reemployment or transfer is not extended to an employee who has not attained regular status.

3. Department heads may reject a regular status employee with Preference for Reemployment or transfer only if the employee lacks qualifications required of the position. Reasons for non selection shall be provided by the department head in writing to the Personnel Manager with a copy to the Union.

4. Reemployment at Another University Location

C. The University agrees to notify the Union at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance of its intent to subcontract any unit work which would result in the layoff of unit employees, and shall meet and confer upon request regarding the subcontracting of such unit work. If agreement is not reached, the University may implement its decision.

Supervisors and other non unit employees shall not normally perform the work of unit employees. However, Management reserves the right to assign supervisors or other non-unit employees to perform unit work to meet the operational needs of the University.

ARTICLE 22. Complaint Procedure

1. Definition
A grievance is a claim during the term of the Agreement that the University has violated a written provision of this Agreement.

2. Standing
A grievance may be brought to the attention of the University through this procedure by an individual employee within the bargaining unit or by the Union. A grievance may not be brought through this procedure by the University.

3. Consolidation
Grievances brought by, or related to, two or more bargaining unit employees, and multiple grievances by or related to the same employee, which concern the same incident, issue, or course of conduct, may upon mutual agreement of the University and the Union, be consolidated for the purposes of this procedure, provided that the time limits described in this Article shall not be shortened for any grievance because of the consolidation of that grievance with other grievances.

4. Representation
An employee shall have the right to be represented at all steps of the grievance procedure by one person of the employee's choice other than a University employee who has been designated by the University as supervisory, managerial, or confidential. If the employee chooses to be represented by the Union, the steward and another Union Representative shall have the right to be present at grievance meetings.
B. Procedure

1. Informal Review
   As soon as practicable, the employee shall attempt to discuss the grievance with his/her immediate supervisor. All parties shall informally attempt a resolution of the matter before a formal written grievance may be filed. Informal resolutions, although final, shall not be precedent-setting. If the complaint is not resolved through informal discussion with the immediate supervisor, the employee may file a formal grievance as set forth below.

2. Formal Review
   A formal Grievance must be filed in writing on a grievance form provided by the University. Grievances shall be filed on the agreed upon form available in Appendix B. The agreed upon form may be amended by mutual agreement of the parties. The Employee & Labor Relations Manager, Human Resources, or designee must receive the written grievance within thirty (30) calendar days after the date on which either the employee or the Union knew or could be expected to know of the event or action which gave rise to the grievance or within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date of the employee's last day on pay status, whichever occurs first. Grievance forms may be mailed, hand-delivered or emailed to the University per the instructions set out in the grievance form in Appendix B, and must be received prior to 5:00pm of the last day of the filing period. Attempts at informal resolution do not extend time limits unless a written exception is granted in advance by the Employee & Labor Relations Manager or designee.

   a. Formal grievances must set forth:

      1. the specific article and section of the Agreement alleged to have been violated;

      2. the action grieved and how it violated the above-mentioned provision;

      3. the date of action grieved;

      4. how the grieving employee was adversely affected; and

      5. the remedy requested.

   b. Within twenty (20) calendar days of the receipt of the formal grievance, the grievant and the department (and/or the designated University official) shall meet to discuss the grievance, unless the parties mutually agree to waive the meeting. If either the grievant, union representative or University requests a meeting, one shall be conducted as soon as reasonably possible within the 20 calendar day period to discuss the grievance.

   c. The designated University official shall render a written decision within fifteen (15) calendar days following the date of the close of the grievance meeting or agreement to waive the grievance meeting. A copy of the decision will be mailed to the grievant and to the Union at the official address on file, as communicated by the Union. A copy of the decision shall also be provided by email to each of the Union representative(s) identified on the grievance form.

3. The Union may refer the grievance to arbitration, where eligible, within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of the University’s decision by the Union.

C. Time Limits
Time limits may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties in writing in advance of the expiration of the time limits. Deadlines which fall on a University non-business day will automatically be extended to the next business day. If a grievance is not appealed to the subsequent step of the procedure within applicable time limits, and an extension has not been agreed to in advance, the grievance will be considered settled on the basis of the last University written response. Failure by management to reply to the employee's grievance within the time limits specified automatically grants to the employee the right to process the grievance to the next level.
D. Pay Status
Whenever the University and the Union convene a meeting to resolve grievances mutually during the scheduled work time of an employee who is a grievant or a representative, upon advance request, reasonable release time shall be granted to the employee(s) involved. Employee time spent at these meetings shall be considered as time worked. When such meetings are convened outside an employee's scheduled work time, no employee release time shall be granted. University employees called as witnesses at such meetings may be released from work with reasonable advance request and granted Leave With Pay for reasonable time spent in meetings. Time spent in preparation of a grievance shall not be on pay status unless specific prior approval has been requested by the employee and granted by management. Requests for release time should be made in accordance with Article 33, Union Stewards. A reasonable amount of time spent during scheduled work hours in investigation of a grievance prior to formal filing shall be granted on pay status.

E. Notification to the Union
Informal resolution may be agreed upon at any stage of the grievance process. Prior to the resolution of any formal grievance in the Skilled Crafts bargaining unit the Union shall be notified.

A. Request for Arbitration
A request for arbitration may be made only by the Union and only after exhaustion of the grievance procedure. Requests for arbitration may be mailed, hand-delivered or emailed to the University per the instructions set out in the Grievance Form in Appendix B, and must be received prior to 5:00pm of the last day of the filing period.

B. Selection of Arbitrators
Within twenty (20) calendar days from receipt from the Union of its decision to request Arbitration, the parties shall meet to select an Arbitrator. Should the parties fail to select a mutually agreeable arbitrator within seven (7) calendar days of their first meeting, the parties shall request a list of seven (7) names from the American Arbitration Association. Upon receipt of the A.A.A. list, the parties shall meet and each shall eliminate the name of three (3) Arbitrators from the list and the remaining person shall be the Arbitrator. The Union and the University agree to alternate which party shall begin the striking of names.

C. Arbitration Procedure

1. The Arbitration proceeding shall provide an opportunity for the Union and the University to examine and cross-examine witnesses under oath and to submit relevant evidence. Relevant material and the names of all witnesses who are to be called shall be identified by the parties prior to the hearing. To the extent possible, witnesses and material should be identified at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the hearing.

2. The Arbitrator may not admit settlement offers as evidence at the Arbitration hearing.

3. Prior to the Arbitration, the Union and the University shall attempt to stipulate as to the issue(s) to be arbitrated and to as many facts as possible.

4. Settlement proposals may be offered at any stage prior to or during Arbitration.

5. The Arbitration hearing shall be closed to the public unless the parties otherwise agree in writing.

6. The Arbitrator, following the close of the record of the hearing, shall consider the evidence presented and render a written decision. The written decision shall include a brief description of each issue under submission, the position of the parties, the findings of fact, the Arbitrator's conclusions as to the violations of the Agreement, if any, and, where appropriate, a remedy.

7. The Arbitrator shall be limited to interpreting the written provisions of the Agreement regarding the issues submitted and shall have no power to add to, delete from, or otherwise alter the terms of the Agreement. The Arbitrator shall have no jurisdiction to decide a grievance which was not received by the University within the time limits set forth in Article 23, Section B., Paragraph 2. The Arbitrator shall have no jurisdiction to decide issues not specifically identified on the initial grievance form filed by the Union.

8. The Arbitrator's fees shall be borne equally by the parties. Expenses for stenographic or other services or facilities shall be borne by the party requesting such services or facilities unless the parties agree otherwise in advance.

D. Decision and Remedy

1. If the grievance is sustained in whole or in part, and subject to the limitations set forth in Section D.2., below, the remedy shall not exceed restoring to the employee the pay, benefits, or rights lost as a result of a violation of the Agreement, subject to the general principles of mitigation. The decision of the Arbitrator, within the limits described herein, shall be final and binding and distributed to the parties within thirty (30) calendar days of the close of the record of the hearing, unless the parties agree in writing to an extension of time.

2. The Arbitrator shall have no authority to award back wages or other monetary reimbursement, nor shall the University be liable on a Grievance claiming back wages or other monetary reimbursement for:
   a. any period of time during which an extension of time limits has been granted by the University at the request of the Union; or
   b. any period of time greater than forty-five (45) calendar days prior to the date of the informal review, Step 1, of the grievance procedures.

E. Released Time and Pay Status

1. Whenever an Arbitration Hearing or a meeting convened to resolve the Arbitration is scheduled during the regular work time of an employee who is a grievant or a representative, reasonable released time with pay shall be granted to the employee(s) involved so long as a written request for released time is received at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance. Employees so released shall be granted Leave With Pay. When an Arbitration Hearing or a meeting occurs outside an employee's scheduled work time, no employee released time shall be granted.

2. University employees called as witnesses may be released from work with reasonable advance request and granted Leave With Pay for reasonable time spent in meetings convened to resolve the Arbitration and for the Arbitration Hearing.

3. Time spent by the grievant(s) or Union representative in investigation and preparation for an Arbitration Hearing shall be on Pay Status as follows:
   a. Up to a maximum of ten (10) hours per month not to exceed fifteen (15) hours per case in total, will be granted to bargaining unit employees for the preparation of a case that has been scheduled for hearing in arbitration; and
   b. A request for release time described in subsection (a) must be made to the grievant’s and/or the representative’s immediate supervisor at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the activity.

It is the duty of all employees covered by this agreement, in the course of performing their assigned duties, to be alert to unsafe practices, equipment, and conditions, and to follow the safety regulations and requirements of the University, and to report any unsafe practices or conditions to their immediate supervisors. An employee shall not be required to perform work which he/she reasonably believes is unsafe, until the safety concern of the employee has been reviewed by the designated University safety official. Management shall contact the designated University safety official, and the employee may be reassigned to perform other work. If the work in question is determined to be safe by the designated University official, the employee may be ordered to perform the work. If the safety matter is not resolved satisfactorily, the Union may consult with the Labor Relations Manager, who shall investigate the safety matter and advise the Department and the Union of any findings or recommendations.

The Committee's recommendations are advisory and are not subject to the Grievance or Arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

B. The Department shall continue to provide the protective clothing and safety equipment which it currently makes available to the employees covered by this Agreement.

C. In cases where the Department requires the wearing of uniforms or protective clothing, the department will provide and maintain those uniforms and protective clothing. If the Department does not require uniforms to be worn, then each employee in the unit on July 1 shall receive $150 in July each year of this Agreement for clothing allowance.

D. If the Department requires employees covered by this Agreement to wear protective shoes, the Department shall either:

1. Reimburse an employee for the cost up to a maximum of $225 per year toward the actual purchase of protective shoes which are approved by the Department. If the Department reimburses an employee up to a maximum of $225 per year for protective shoes, he or she is required to wear them while working; or

2. Directly reimburse a designated vendor for protective shoes for an employee in an amount not to exceed $225. C. Notices

1. An employee in the skilled craft unit shall not be separated under this Article while the employee is drawing accrued Sick Leave or while the employee is receiving Extended Sick Leave.    any, reasonable accommodation will be made.

   D. Medical Documentation

   Positions used for trial employment shall not be designated as career, except that an employee shall maintain benefits to the extent permitted by benefit plan rules.

Overture Assignment- Facilities Management

Coordination and scheduling of overtime in Facilities Management, pursuant to Article 8, Overtime, will be assigned as follows:

1. A roster (by trade) will be printed from KRONOS on the last Monday of each month ranking employees in order from the least to the most accumulated number of overtime hours (OT) worked year-to-date. This system for assignment of overtime shall begin July 2016, based on the June rankings, with overtime hours to begin accumulating as of July 1, 2016.

2. Each January, the number of hours worked will be reset to zero and the roster order will be in order of the hours accumulated as of the last Monday in the month of December.

3. Overtime (OT) will be offered to the employees with the least amount of OT hours worked, in ascending order.

4. For overtime other than call outs, if an employee declines the overtime assignment, s/he shall sign off indicating that s/he was offered the assignment and declined. An employee working on a job that will require OT to complete will continue that job on OT. If the employee requires additional help that will lead to OT, the roster order must be followed.

5. Adding Employees to the overtime list: When an employee ends probation and expresses interest in working overtime, s/he will be added to the “Overtime Roster” starting at the beginning of the next month with the average of the hours for his/her trade.

6. Revisions: No revisions will be made on the OT rosters until the 1st of the month.

7. Returning from an Excused Absence, Injury or Temporary Duty Assignment: An employee returning from an excused absence, injury (industrial or non-industrial) or temporary duty assignment of 90 days or less will be placed back on the OT roster for the month following their return with the same number of hours when they left. An employee returning after more than 90 days will be subject to the provisions of Section 4, above. If an employee returns to work before the 1st of the month, s/he will have to wait until the 1st to be placed back on the roster.

8. Excused Absences Defined: All approved leaves pursuant to Article 16, Leaves of Absence.

9. If an employee on an excused leave will be at work for a scheduled overtime, the supervisor will call and offer the overtime. If there is no answer, it is considered a missed opportunity for overtime. The sign off pursuant to paragraph 4 is not required.
10. Advance notice of Scheduled OT: Where practicable, 24 hour notice will be provided to the employee for scheduled overtime.

11. For the electrical shop, a second overtime roster will also be prepared in order of seniority to use for only special events. A list of special events will be prepared in September of each year. Overtime for a special event on the list will be offered by seniority and the list will continually rotate. If the overtime is declined, the employee will go to the end of the list. If a new employee (electrician) wants to be added to this list after probation has ended, s/he will be placed onto the list by his/her seniority. If no one responds to a call after going through the list twice, the pager carrier has the option of responding to the call if the call is for a job within their trade. If the pager carrier is unable to respond, or it is outside the trade, the pager carrier person will contact the appropriate trade superintendent or a manager. The pager carrier should leave a voicemail for the first call only.

2. The trade person responding to a call-out should generally be able to respond and clock-in on campus to a call-out within 90 minutes of the dispatch.

4. The Tradesperson cannot be the pager carrier if they have scheduled time off that exceeds 16 hours for the week, and it is the tradesperson’s responsibility to switch with another person.

5. For unscheduled leaves (bereavement, sick, worker’s compensation, FMLA, etc.) the pager carrier will find someone else on the on-call list to switch with while they are out on leave or contact their supervisor.

6. The On-Call person assigned the Pager will respond to a call, text or email from the on-call phone, if not immediately, within fifteen to thirty minutes of the call, text or email depending on the alarm type received by the on-call pager phone.

7. Overnight call-outs will be reported on the call-out log sheet to the Customer Service manager first thing the following morning during normal work days (Monday – Friday) so that work orders can be created.

8. The call-out log shall be completed by the On-Call person during non-working hours, not on work time, except for calls after 4:00am.

9. Follow up – The On-Call person will follow up with the person who went out on a call-out to find out what was done as a result of the call-out. The On-Call person will then update the call-out log and will report the result of the call-out at the Monday morning Pager Report meeting.

10. Holidays – When there is a holiday on a Monday, it is the responsibility of the person carrying the on-call pager phone to coordinate with the next scheduled person to carry it, to meet and transfer the on-call phone on that holiday.

11. If the person scheduled to carry the on-call pager phone is unable to, it is their responsibility to find someone else from the on-call list to carry it and notify the Customer Service manager prior to the start of the Monday morning Pager meeting.
12. Pager meeting – prior to the Monday morning Pager meeting, it is the responsibility of the person who was assigned the on-call pager phone to contact the next person on the on-call schedule to make sure they are at the Pager meeting. Fifteen copies of the call-out log, which will include information that is clear, complete, and accurate, will be printed for the Pager meeting. The Pager carrier will arrive to the meeting 30 minutes in advance to prepare for the meeting.

13. The On-Call person is responsible for the on-call Pager phone, case and charger. If there are any problems with the on-call Pager phone while the person on-call is carrying it, they will take the phone to the Stock Room Manager. The pager carrier should not make changes to any of the settings except for ringer tones or to set the wifi. Please notify a manager immediately if there is an issue with the pager phone.

14. All emails received by the on-call Pager phone between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding holidays, will be logged and dispatched by Customer Service. However, the pager carrier should carry the pager phone at all times.
