Article __: LABOR MANAGEMENT MEETINGS

In the interest of fostering a cooperative approach to resolving problems, the Union and the University shall form a labor-management committee made up of no less than three (3) representatives of each party. The Union and the University agree to hold labor-management meetings quarterly. These meetings will occur at a mutually acceptable time, date and place at Olive View-UCLA to discuss issues related to working conditions, facilities and items related to this Agreement. Meeting times may occur outside of normal business hours. The union shall contact University Labor Relations to initiate scheduling of the meetings. At least seven calendar days in advance of the scheduled meeting, the Union shall provide a proposed agenda.
