Section II The ARAG Legal Insurance Plan

A. Benefits Under The ARAG Legal Insurance Plan Consist of Three Parts

The person must be an Insured when each service is furnished.

Part I – Legal Representation

Attorney’s Fees for most covered services are 100% paid-in-full when using a Network Attorney. Or use a Non-Network Attorney and be reimbursed up to the Non-Network Attorney benefit. For a detailed description of services and what the Benefits are see Section III.

There is a maximum reimbursement amount (see “List of Benefits”). Not all charges are eligible and some charges are eligible only to a limited extent.

There is also a Conversion Plan that may apply after a person ceases to be covered under The ARAG Legal Insurance Plan (see conversion).

Part II – Telephone Legal Advice and Consultation

This part of the plan provides services to Insureds through a Telephone Network Attorney. There is no Attorney Fee for these services. The preventive legal services provided by the Telephone Network Attorney are those contained in the List of Benefits that involve the Insured’s legal affairs, and are not services that involve a visit to an Attorney’s office or are otherwise not covered. The services described will be provided to an Insured at the discretion of the Telephone Network Attorney. The Telephone Network Attorney will not charge an Insured for these services. Telephone Legal Advice and Consultation are not available for matters outside the jurisdiction of the United States.

Additional Benefits

Not all Network Attorneys participate on the reduced fee panel and those matters that are specifically excluded in the plan are not eligible for the reduced fees.

Reduced Contingency Fee

This part of the plan provides caps on the percentage of any settlement arrangements on contingency fee cases. Fees, for those Network Attorneys participating on this panel, are capped at 25% for initial trial/settlement and 30% for subsequent appeal proceedings.

B. Pre-existing Conditions

Any legal matter that occurs or is initiated prior to the effective date of an Insured will be considered excluded and no benefits will apply. ARAG defines this as an event covered by this policy whose initiation date will be considered the earlier of the date (a) written notice of a legal dispute is sent or filed by you or received by you; or (b) a ticket or citation is issued; or (c) an attorney is hired.

C. Freedom of Choice of an Attorney

An Insured may choose any Attorney to provide Legal Representation. Except for the provisions of the Benefits and the requirement of information for claim processing, neither ARAG nor the University of California will interfere with the Insured's Attorney. The Attorney's obligation will be only with and to the Insured. If an Insured chooses to use a Non-Network Attorney the Non-Network Attorney benefit schedule will apply.

Schedule of Benefits

D. Confidentiality

An Insured is assured full confidentiality with respect to calls and problems discussed with any Service Provider or Attorney with respect to claims submitted for Legal Representation under The ARAG Legal Insurance Plan.

E. Reimbursement of Legal Fees

The Benefit amount payable for legal services furnished to an Insured is the amount of the eligible charges for those legal services, but not more than these limits.

- For Legal Representation by a Network Attorney, see the limits determined from the Schedule of Benefits list of legal services in Section III.
- For Legal Representation by a Non-Network Attorney, see the reimbursement amounts shown in the Schedule of Benefits in Section III.
- Only one Benefit shall be payable for all legal services arising out of a single cause of action or event resulting in the need for the legal services. ARAG will decide which Benefit shall be payable.

If a court awards Attorney fees to an Insured in connection with covered Benefits, ARAG may require the Insured to assign all rights of recovery of the legal fees to the extent of the payment that was made by them. If an assignment is sought, an Insured must cooperate with ARAG.

F. Eligible Charges

A charge is an eligible charge if all these conditions are met:

- It is for a covered legal service furnished to an Insured while the plan is in effect;
- The service involves an Insured's personal legal matters and is contained in the List of Benefits; and
- The person is an Insured when the service is furnished.

G. Extension of Benefits

If coverage for you or one of your covered dependents is terminated, your legal services coverage (except Telephone Legal Advice and Consultation) will be extended to cover legal services in progress prior to the date the coverage terminated until the services are completed.

A. Benefits

The Schedule of Benefits applies to an Insured when the Schedule of Benefits specifically states that Benefit. It includes only Benefits included in the list. However, if the law of jurisdiction where the Benefit is furnished uses legal terms that differ from those in the list provided, ARAG will determine the equivalent Benefit from the list provided.

The benefit year is a 12-month period based on a calendar year. A Benefit may be furnished for more than one insured in a Family Unit with respect to the same event or cause of action resulting in the need for that Benefit. In that case, only one Benefit will be considered to have been furnished.

Grievance Procedures

Section V Grievance Procedures

Service Provider

If you have a problem with a Service Provider in the handling of a service issued under the ARAG Legal Insurance Plan and you and the Service Provider cannot resolve it, a written grievance is required. ARAG will provide you with a form and information about filing the grievance.

Network Attorney

If you have a problem with a Telephone Network Attorney or Network Attorney in the handling of a legal matter covered under the ARAG Legal Insurance Plan, and you and the attorney cannot resolve it, a written grievance is required. ARAG will provide you with the form and information about filing the grievance with us.

ARAG will provide alternative benefits if you are unable to find a Network Attorney willing to perform the covered legal services or if the attorney selected by you is disqualified or otherwise unable to perform the covered legal services. Any disputes you have concerning your grounds for requesting an alternative benefit will be submitted to an impartial arbitrator whose decision will be binding on both parties.

You have the right to file a complaint with the State Bar Association about your Attorney at any time.

Appeal Procedure

If you believe you may be entitled to benefits that have been denied, or you are in disagreement with any determination that has been made, you may present a claim to ARAG.

You must follow the claim and review procedure carefully and completely and you must file your claim before the deadlines provided. If you do not do so, you will give up important legal rights.

You must file your claim for benefits with ARAG within one year after you knew or reasonably should have known of the principal facts on which your claim is based. After you file your claim, you must complete the entire claim and review procedure before you can sue over your claim. It is important that you include all the facts and arguments that you want considered during the claim and review procedure.

Your claim for Plan benefits will be subject to a full and fair review. If your claim is wholly or partially denied, ARAG will furnish you with a written notice of this denial. This written notice must be provided to you within a reasonable period of time (generally 90 days) after the receipt of your claim by ARAG.

The written notice will contain the following information:

- The specific reason or reasons for the denial;
- The specific reference on the Plan provisions on which the denial is based;
- A description of any additional information or material necessary to correct your claim and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary; and
- Appropriate information as to the steps to be taken if you or your beneficiary wishes to submit your claim for review.

If your claim has been denied and you wish to submit your claim for review, you must follow the Claims Review Procedure described below:

- Upon the denial of your claim for benefits, you may file your claim for review, in writing, with ARAG.
- YOU MUST FILE THE CLAIM FOR REVIEW NO LATER THAN 60 DAYS AFTER YOU HAVE RECEIVED WRITTEN NOTIFICATION OF THE DENIAL OF YOUR CLAIM FOR BENEFITS.
- You may review all pertinent documents relating to the denial of your claim and submit any issues and comments, in writing, to ARAG.

Your claim for review will be given a full and fair review. If your claim is denied, ARAG will provide you with written notice of this denial within 60 days after ARAG's receipt of your written claim for review. There may be times when this 60-day period may be extended. For example, this extension may be made where there are special circumstances that are communicated to you in writing within the 60-day period. If there is an extension, a decision shall be made as soon as possible, but not later than 120 days after the receipt by ARAG of your claim for review.

ARAG's decision on your claim for review will be communicated to you in writing and will include specific references to the pertinent Plan provisions on which the decision was based.

How to Use the ARAG Legal Insurance Plan

You may, at your own expense, have an attorney or other representative act on your behalf, but ARAG reserves the right to require your written authorization before providing information to a third party. ARAG also reserves the right to delegate its authority to make decisions.

If you file your claim within the required time and complete the entire claim and review procedure and your claim is still denied, you may sue over your claim unless you have executed a release of claims that includes a release of your claim for benefits. However, you must commence that suit within 30 months after you knew or reasonably should have known of the principal facts on which your claim is based or, if earlier, six months after the claim and review procedure is completed.

Coordination of Benefits

Section VII

Coordination of Benefits

The ARAG Legal Insurance Plan contains a no profit provision coordinating it with other legal plans under which you or your covered dependents may be covered so that the total benefits will not exceed 100% of the allowable expense.

An “allowable expense” is any expense covered, at least in part, by one of the plans. “Plans” means these types of legal services benefits: (a) coverage under a governmental program or provided or required by statute, or (b) group insurance or other coverage for a group of individuals, whether insured or uninsured. This includes prepayment, group practice or individual practice coverage. When a claim is made the primary plan pays its benefits without regard to any other plans. The secondary plans adjust their benefits so that the total benefits available will not exceed the allowable expense. No plan pays more than it would without the coordination provision.

A plan without a coordinating provision is always the primary plan. If all plans have such a provision:

1. the plan covering the individual directly rather than as the dependent, is primary and the others secondary;
2. if a child is covered under both parents' plans, and the parents have the same birthday, the plan that covered the individual longer is primary; but when the parents are separated or divorced, their plans pay in this order:
 - (a) if a court decree has established financial responsibility for the child's legal expenses, the plan of the parent with this responsibility;
 - (b) the plan of the parent with the custody of the child;
 - (c) the plan of the spouse married to the parent with custody of the child;
3. if neither (1) nor (2) apply, the plan covering the individual the longest is primary.

When your plan is the secondary plan and its payment is reduced to consider the primary plan's benefits, a record is kept of the reduction. This amount will be used to increase your legal plan's payment on any later claims in the same calendar year — to the extent there are allowable expenses that would not otherwise be fully paid by your ARAG Legal Insurance Plan and others.
